GREAT WRITING MAKES GREAT WRITERS

The new edition of Great Writing provides clear explanations, academic writing models, and focused practice to help students write great sentences, paragraphs, and essays. Every unit has expanded vocabulary building, sentence development, and more structured final writing tasks.

National Geographic images and content spark students' imaginations and inspire their writing.

Each unit includes:

PART 1: Elements of Great Writing teaches the fundamentals of writing.

Writing Models encourage students to analyze and use the features of great writing in their own work.

Targeted Grammar presents clear explanations and examples that students can immediately apply to their work.

PART 2: Building Better Vocabulary highlights academic words, word associations, collocations, word forms, and vocabulary for writing.

TEST PREP

You should spend about 25 minutes on this task. Write a paragraph with six to ten sentences about the following topic.

Is being a tour guide a good job? How is it easy or difficult? What kinds of things does a tour guide do every day?

TIP

Take five minutes to plan before you start writing. First, list all the ideas you have about the topic. Then think about which ideas have the best supporting examples or ideas. Identify your main idea. Then write a topic sentence that represents your best idea.

Give reasons for your opinion and include any relevant examples from your knowledge or experience. Remember to use the simple present and check for correct subject-verb agreement. Check for correct capitalization and end punctuation. Write at least 150 words.

NEW Test Prep section prepares students for timed writing on high-stakes tests.

SUPPORT FOR INSTRUCTORS AND STUDENTS

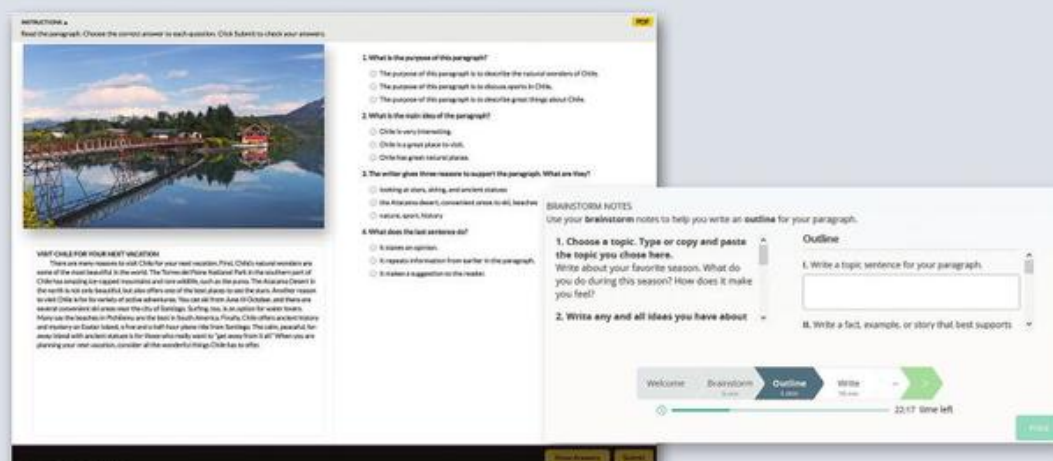

FOR INSTRUCTORS

The Classroom Presentation Tool brings the classroom to life by including all Student Book pages, answers, and games to practice vocabulary.

Assessment: ExamView allows instructors to create custom tests and quizzes in minutes. ExamView and Ready to Go Tests are available online at the teacher companion website for ease of use.

FOR STUDENTS

The Online Workbook provides additional practice in vocabulary, grammar, and writing, plus remediation activities for students who have not mastered at-level vocabulary and grammar.

NEW Guided online writing practice reinforces the writing process, helping students become stronger and more independent writers.

1 | Sentence Basics

OBJECTIVES

- Use common sentence patterns with the verb be
- Write sentences with there is/there are
- Use prepositional phrases of place and time
- Use time words and phrases
- Use correct capitalization and punctuation

Al-Khazneh is an ancient building in Petra, Jordan.

FREWRITE

Look at the photo. On a separate piece of paper, write what you know or want to know about this place. Why do people build places like this?

ELEMENTS OF GREAT WRITING

What Is a Sentence?

A simple sentence is a group of words that:

- expresses a complete thought
- has a subject and a verb
- has an object and/or other information after the verb

SUBJECT	VERB	OBJECT	OTHER INFORMATION
Maria	sings.
Maria and her sister	play	the piano.
They	sing and play	beautiful songs	every day.
Maria's brother	plays	soccer and basketball.

The subject:

- is the person or thing that does the action
- can be a noun or a pronoun

The verb:

- shows the action or state of the subject
- is sometimes an action word, such as go, speak, write, swim, or watch
- is sometimes a non-action word, such as be, like, want, or need

The object:

- receives the action of the verb
- can be a noun or a pronoun

ACTIVITY 1 | Identifying subjects, verbs, and objects

Underline the subject in each sentence. Circle the verb(s). Double underline any objects.

1. My friend and I play tennis.
2. Eun and Hae-Won skate.
3. The university has business and education classes.
4. Abdullah and Salem take and share pictures.
5. The science class studies climate change.

6. The history professors give long lectures.
7. Eva reads newspapers, magazines, and books.
8. The performer sings, acts, and dances.

ACTIVITY 2 | Using subjects, verbs, and objects

Fill in each blank with the correct subject, verb, or object. Use words from the word box.

Amazon Go	Caroline	enjoys	She	wakes up
arrives	classes	her job	takes	works

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 1.1

attend: (v) to go to a meeting, class, and so on break: (n) a pause or stop in work or activity

PARAGRAPH 1.1

A Great Place to Work

¹ _____ has a great job at Amazon Go. ² _____ works there on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays. She does not work there on Wednesdays because she attends ³ _____ at Jefferson Community College. On her workdays, Caroline ⁴ _____ at 6 a.m. She ⁵ _____ at the store at 8 a.m. She ⁶ _____ from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. She ⁷ _____ her break from 12:30 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. Caroline likes ⁸ _____ very much. She ⁹ _____ her coworkers, too. For Caroline, ¹⁰ _____ is a great place to work.

An Amazon Go customer uses an app to buy groceries.

Avoiding Fragments

A fragment is an incomplete sentence. It:

- is missing a subject or a verb
 - does not have a complete idea
- ✓ John is my brother. He works at Ames Bank.
✗ John is my brother. Works at Ames Bank.
- ✓ Many people have white cars.
✗ Many people white cars.

Check your work to avoid writing fragments.

WRITER'S NOTE Using It as a Subject

Use It as the subject to talk about weather and time. Without the It subject, you have a fragment.

- ✓ It snows a lot this time of year.
✗ Snows a lot this time of year.
- ✓ It is five o'clock now.
✗ Is five o'clock now.

ACTIVITY 3 | Identifying fragments

Write F for fragment and S for complete sentence. Then correct the fragments.

1. S Hans lives in a big apartment.
2. F My mother ^{makes} breakfast every morning.
3. _____ Is sunny today.
4. _____ Abdul has a car.
5. _____ They my cousins from Miami.
6. _____ It twelve o'clock.
7. _____ Michael likes football.
8. _____ Nicole and Jean best friends.
9. _____ Colombia is in South America.
10. _____ Has a subject and a verb.

Sentences with the Verb Be

Be is a very common verb in English. It has three forms in the simple present: am, is, are. Be is never followed by an object. Here are three common sentence patterns of be.

Subject + Be + Adjective(s)

SUBJECT	BE	ADJECTIVE(S)
I	am	happy.
You/We/They	are	young.
He/She/It	is	fun and interesting.

Subject + Be + Noun(s)/Noun Phrase

SUBJECT	BE	NOUN(S)/NOUN PHRASE
I	am	a mother and a doctor.
The players	are	a team.
Ceviche	is	a seafood dish.

Subject + Be + Prepositional Phrase

SUBJECT	BE	PREPOSITIONAL PHRASE
I	am	at school.
My keys	are	on the table.
The test	is	in the morning.

You can use more than one pattern at a time in a sentence:

adj prep phr
I am happy at work.

n phr prep phr
She is a top chef in Asia.

Chef Chen Lansu at her restaurant, Le MouÛt, in Taiwan

ACTIVITY 4 | Identifying sentence patterns of be

Read the paragraph. Then follow the directions below.

1. Circle the sentence(s) with the pattern be + adjective(s).
2. Underline the sentence(s) with the pattern be + noun(s)/noun phrase.
3. Double underline the sentence(s) with the pattern be + prepositional phrase.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 1.2

border: (n) the line that divides two countries research: (n) the study of information scientist: (n) someone who works in science

PARAGRAPH 1.2

Grammar: Expressing Place and Time

A prepositional phrase is a group of words that:

- begins with a preposition, such as at, in, or on
- includes a noun or pronoun, called the object of the preposition

A prepositional phrase of place tells about location. It answers the question Where? We usually put it at the end of a sentence.

We eat a lot of salad at home.

The computer is on the desk.

Loretta lives in my house.

A prepositional phrase of time tells about time. It answers the question When? We usually put it at the end of a sentence. It often goes after a prepositional phrase of place if both are present.

Michelle reads the newspaper in the morning.

She sees him at the bank on Mondays.

A time word or time phrase also answers the question When? and can come at the end of a sentence.

Eric watches TV daily.

Marco works every afternoon.

If you start a sentence with an expression of time, it is common to use a comma.

In the spring, everyone has finals.

Today, we have an important meeting.

Twice a week, Teresa volunteers at the library.

Here are some common ways to express place and time.

PREPOSITIONAL PHRASES OF PLACE	PREPOSITIONAL PHRASES OF TIME	TIME WORDS AND PHRASES
at school	at 9:00 a.m.	today at the bank	at noon	now
on the wall	at night	every day
on Main Street	in the morning	once a week

8. I / busy / right now / am / at work
_____.
9. Paul and Carrie / their grandmother / every month / visit / in Miami
_____.
10. we / coffee / have / every morning / at the café

Grammar: There Is/There Are + Prepositional Phrase

Use there is/there are to say that something exists. Use there is/there are + a prepositional phrase to say where something is. When you begin a sentence with there, the subject follows the verb be. Use is with singular subjects. Use are with plural subjects.

THERE	IS/ARE	SUBJECT	PREPOSITIONAL PHRASE
There	is	one Earth.
There	is	a meeting	in the conference room.
There	are	two types of elephants.
There	are	two empty chairs	at the table.

BUILDING BETTER SENTENCES

ACTIVITY 19 | Editing sentences

Find and correct the errors. The number in parentheses tells how many errors each sentence has.

1. Gyeongju National ^Ppark is in ^Ssouth Korea [^]. (3)
2. Most schools classes in may. (2)
3. My family at the pool swims. (1)
4. In the winter, snows a lot in the mountains (2)

9. Nepal is north of India.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
10. Bolivia not part of Europe.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Combining Sentences

Some writers like to keep their sentences short because they feel that if they write longer and more complicated sentences, they are more likely to make mistakes. However, longer sentences connect ideas, and this makes it easier for the reader to understand.

Study these sentences. The important information is circled.

I (have) a (friend).

My friend (studies science).

My friend studies (at the university).

Every sentence has an important piece of information. The most important information from each sentence can be used to create longer and smoother sentences. Notice how the ideas in the shorter sentences are combined in these longer sentences.

My friend is a science student at the university.

I have a friend who studies science at the university.

A word or word form may change or be omitted, but no ideas are changed or omitted.
Remember that there is usually more than one way to combine sentences.

Study these sentences. The important information is circled.

There was a storm yesterday.

It was strong.

It moved quickly toward the city.

Now read these longer, smoother sentences:

Yesterday, a strong storm moved quickly toward the city.

There was a strong storm that moved quickly toward the city yesterday.

ACTIVITY 21 | Combining sentences

Combine the ideas into one sentence. You may change the word forms, but do not change or omit any ideas. There may be more than one answer.

1. Andrew is a teacher.
Andrew is reliable.
Andrew teaches at my high school.

2. There are answers.
The answers are correct.
The answers are on the website.

3. Rachel takes Tai Chi classes.
The classes are at a park.
The park is popular.

Students do Tai Chi in Chongqing, China.

WRITING

ACTIVITY 22 | Writing sentences

Write original sentences. Follow the instructions.

- Answer the questions below to write eight to ten complete sentences about a famous location (city, country, or area) you want to visit.
- As you write, use at least two vocabulary words or phrases presented in this unit. Underline these words in your sentences.

1. What famous location do you want to visit? _____

2. Where is this location? _____

3. What is an important monument or place there? _____

4. Briefly describe this monument or place. _____

5. What is another thing this location is known for? _____

6. Briefly explain. _____

7. What is an interesting thing to see or do in this location? _____

8. Briefly explain. _____

Editing

It is a good idea to check your work for grammar, spelling, and punctuation. You should also make sure your writing is clear and easy to understand.

After you finish writing, check your work for errors. Use the checklist below to help you.

- ☐ Each sentence has a subject and a verb.
- ☐ Each sentence starts with a capital letter and ends with a period.
- ☐ I used the verb be correctly.
- ☐ I used there are with plural subjects and there is with singular subjects.
- ☐ I used prepositional phrases of place correctly.
- ☐ I capitalized all proper nouns.
- ☐ I used vocabulary words from the unit correctly.

Peer Editing

A good way to make sure that your writing is clear is to let someone else read it and make suggestions. Other people may notice things that you missed.

After you check your work, it is helpful to have a peer check it. A peer is someone who is equal to you, such as a classmate. When a peer edits your writing, it is called peer editing.

This is what usually happens in peer editing:

1. A peer reads your writing.
2. Your peer gives you suggestions and ideas for making your writing better.
3. You listen carefully to what your peer says.
4. You think about making the changes your peer suggests. If the comments are negative, remember that the comments are about the mistakes in your writing, not about you.

Peer Editing Comments

When you peer edit a classmate's writing, choose your words carefully. Make sure that:

- Your comments are helpful. Be specific about the mistakes.

Helpful: "You forgot to put the word at here."

Not helpful: "This is incorrect."

- Your comments are polite. Say things the way you would want someone to tell you.

Polite: "What does this sentence mean? Can you make the meaning clearer?"

Not polite: "What is this? It doesn't make any sense at all!"

Before you write a comment, ask yourself, "Will this be helpful to the writer? Would I want someone to tell me this?"

ACTIVITY 23 | Writing peer editing comments

Edit the paragraph. There are mistakes with capitalization, punctuation, and fragments. Then complete the feedback below. Compare your comments with a partner.

Sunset in Siena, Italy

PARAGRAPH 1.7

The Beauty of Tuscany

I want to visit tuscany. Tuscany^{is} a beautiful location in Italy. The apennine Mountains in Tuscany. Have great places to ski and hike. Tuscany also famous for its beautiful ceramics¹. For example, bowls, vases, and oil jars very popular with tourists. Tuscany has so many interesting places to see. Pisa and Siena two beautiful cities there. Is a wonderful place to visit

¹ceramics: pottery; items made of oven-dried clay

1. Write one positive comment about the paragraph.

2. Write one thing the writer can improve when he or she rewrites the paragraph.

ACTIVITY 24 | Peer editing

Exchange books with a partner and look at Activity 22. Read your partner's sentences. Then use Peer Editing Form 1 in the Writer's Handbook to comment on your partner's sentences. Offer positive suggestions and comments that will help your partner improve his or her writing. Consider your partner's comments as you revise your own sentences.

Additional Topics for Writing

Choose one or more of the topics to write about. Follow your teacher's directions.

TOPIC 1: Look back at the photo and caption on pages 2–3. Describe an amazing location in your country. Where is it? What is it? Why is it amazing?

TOPIC 2: Describe an interesting job someone you know has. What things does this person have to do for that job?

TOPIC 3: Write about your favorite type of animal. Why do you like this animal? Where does this animal normally live? What does the animal look like?

TOPIC 4: Write about your weekends. What do you like to do? Who do you spend your weekends with?

TOPIC 5: Write about a hobby that you have. What is it? How often do you do it? Why do you enjoy this hobby?

TEST PREP

You should spend about 25 minutes on this task. Write a paragraph with six to ten sentences.

Some people prefer to spend their free time indoors. Other people prefer to spend their free time outdoors. Which do you prefer? Give specific reasons and examples.

TIP

Take five to seven minutes to think of ideas before you begin writing. Take notes on these ideas. This will help you write your response more quickly and clearly.

Remember to use complete sentences. Check your work for fragments and correct capitalization and punctuation.

2 | Paragraph Basics

OBJECTIVES

- Identify topic, supporting, and concluding sentences
- Use adjectives
- Use subject and object pronouns
- Write an original paragraph

Nobel Prize-winning author Gabriel Garcia Marquez greets people from a train window in his hometown of Aracataca, Colombia.

FREEWRITE | Look at the photo and read the caption. What is happening? Why?

ELEMENTS OF GREAT WRITING

What Is a Paragraph?

A paragraph is a group of sentences about one topic or idea. It has four main parts:

- an indented (moved in) first line
- a topic sentence that gives the main idea
- a body of sentences all about the main idea
- a concluding sentence

ACTIVITY 1 | Analyzing paragraphs

Read the paragraphs and answer the questions that follow.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraphs 2.1 to 2.2

amazing: (adj) causing great surprise or wonder bother: (v) to annoy someone comfortable: (adj) providing relaxation relax: (v) to stop work and enjoy oneself

PARAGRAPH 2.1

The Best Place to Relax

My back porch is my favorite place to relax. First, it has a lot of comfortable chairs with soft pillows. I feel so good when I sit in them. My back porch is also very quiet. I can sit and think there. I can even read a great book and nobody bothers me. Finally, in the evening, I can sit on my porch and watch the sunset. Watching the beautiful colors always calms me. I can relax in many places, but my back porch is the best.

1. The topic sentence is the first sentence. Write it here.

2. What is the main idea of this paragraph?

- a. The writer likes watching the sunset.
- b. The writer likes to read a book in a quiet place.
- c. The writer likes to relax on her back porch.

3. Write the four things the writer does to relax on her porch.

a. She sits in comfortable chairs.

b. _____

d. _____

4. How many sentences are in this paragraph? _____

5. The concluding sentence is the last sentence. Write it here.

PARAGRAPH 2.2

The Shanghai Tower

The Shanghai Tower in China is an amazing building. It is the tallest building in Shanghai's business district¹, and the second-tallest building in the world. The tower has 128 floors, and there are more levels below the building. It has 107 elevators, and they can move 40 mph. There are beautiful gardens on many floors, and the Shanghai Tower has one of the world's highest observation decks². In addition, the tower is good for the environment. Special machines use the wind to make extra electricity for the building, and the building uses rainwater to keep it cool inside. The Shanghai Tower is amazing inside and out.

¹district: an area of a city or a country

²observation deck: the top of a building where people can look at everything below

The Shanghai Tower rises above the Shanghai World Financial Center and the Jin Mao Tower.

1. What is the topic sentence? Write it here.

2. What is the main idea of this paragraph?

- a. The Shanghai Tower is good for the environment.
- b. The Shanghai Tower is tall.
- c. The Shanghai Tower is wonderful.

3. Write six amazing things about the Shanghai Tower.

a. _____

b. _____

d. _____

e. _____

f. _____

4. How many sentences are in this paragraph? _____

5. What is the concluding sentence? Write it here.

Mechanics: The Title of a Paragraph

A title gives the reader information about what is in a paragraph. A good title:

- tells the main topic, but does not tell about everything in the paragraph
- is usually short—sometimes only one word
- does not have a period at the end
- does not begin with My Paragraph
- follows special capitalization rules

The capitalization rules for titles are:

- always capitalize the first letter of the first word
- only capitalize the first letter of the important words in the rest of the title
- do not capitalize a preposition or an article unless it is the first word

How to Take a Good Picture with a Cell Phone

An Amazing Vacation

ACTIVITY 2 | Editing titles

With a partner discuss what is wrong with each title. Then edit each one to make it a good title.

1. AN INFLUENTIAL INVENTOR
2. A Handbook For International Students In Canada
3. Three Types of Transportation.
4. My Paragraph on a New Technology
5. How to Become an Engineer at NASA in a Very Short Amount of Time
6. The ten Best Movies of All Time
7. This Was the Best Day of My Life.
8. My first car
9. an Unusual Animal
10. the first female astronaut

ACTIVITY 3 | Writing a paragraph

Answer the questions. Use complete sentences.

1. Who is a popular person in your country?

2. Where is this person from?

3. What does this person do?

4. Why is this person popular?

5. Do you like this person? Why or why not?

Now write your sentences in paragraph form on a separate piece of paper. Remember to indent the first line and give your paragraph a title.

Parts of a Paragraph: The Topic Sentence

A good paragraph has a topic sentence. The topic sentence:

- tells the main idea of the whole paragraph
- is often the first sentence
- should not be too specific or too general

If a paragraph does not have a topic sentence, the reader may be confused because the organization of ideas will not be clear.

ACTIVITY 4 | Identifying topic sentences

Paragraphs 2.3, 2.4, and 2.5 are each missing a topic sentence. Read each paragraph. Then choose the best topic sentence.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraphs 2.3 to 2.5

accident: (n) a harmful or unpleasant event that happens by surprise compete: (v) to participate in a contest damage: (v) to hurt or injure danger: (n) a harmful situation

during: (prep) all through a time period energy: (n) activity

explore: (v) to travel around to learn more; to investigate extremely: (adv) very fan: (n) a person who likes something very much traffic: (n) the movement of cars, trucks, and so on in an area

PARAGRAPH 2.3

The Problems with Snow

Snow is beautiful when it falls. However, the snow is not beautiful for very long. When it starts to melt¹, the clean streets become wet and difficult to walk on. The sidewalks are slippery². Snow also causes traffic problems. Some roads are closed. Other roads are difficult to drive on safely. Drivers have more accidents on snowy roads. There are more problems with snow than reasons to like it.

¹melt: to change from a solid to a liquid

²slippery: causing people or things to fall or slide

- a. In December, it usually snows.
- b. Snow does not cause many problems.
- c. Snow is beautiful, but it causes many problems.

My Favorite City

I love to see all the interesting landmarks¹ there. I always visit the Statue of Liberty and the Empire State Building. It is also fun to explore different areas of the city. My favorites are Chinatown and Manhattan. Most importantly, New York City is full of energy. People from all over the world walk on its streets, play in its parks, and eat its wonderful food. I never feel bored or alone when I am there. I truly² love New York City.

¹landmark: a historic building or other point of interest

²truly: really; sincerely

- a. My favorite city is New York City.
- b. New York City is a very busy city.
- c. New York City is also full of energy.

Road Cycling

In road cycling, cyclists compete on public¹ roads. These roads are usually good, but rain can make them very slippery. Serious accidents are common during this weather. Cyclists also ride very close together. If a rider falls, many of the others around him also fall. These accidents can damage bikes and hurt the riders. Finally, the cyclists are also in danger from their fans. Spectators² stand along the roads as the bikes speed³ past. Fans often run next to the riders or try to touch them, and this can cause terrible problems. Road cycling may look like a safe sport, but it can be extremely dangerous.

¹public: meant for use by the people in the community

²spectator: someone who watches an event

³speed: to move quickly

- a. Road cycling can be a dangerous sport.
- b. Road cycling fans can be a danger to bike riders.
- c. Road cycling is an extremely exciting sport.

Cyclists on the cycling
Tour of Oman

ACTIVITY 5 | Writing topic sentences

Read the paragraphs and write a topic sentence for each one. Remember to indent. Then read the paragraphs again. Make sure that each topic sentence gives the main idea for the whole paragraph.

check: (v) to look for information connect: (v) to reach by phone or Internet explain: (v) to give information about; make clear organized: (adj) in good order patient: (adj) calm; not easily upset plan: (v) to prepare for something taste: (v) to sense the flavor of food and liquids

Pasta, Pasta, Pasta

First, pasta tastes great. Sometimes I eat it plain¹. However, I also like it with butter or cheese. Another reason I like pasta is the variety. There are many types of pasta, but my favorites are spaghetti, macaroni, vermicelli, and lasagna. In addition, pasta is very easy to prepare. I can make pasta in less than 10 minutes. Finally, pasta is a very healthy food for me. A plate of pasta has about 300 calories², but it has only three grams of fat. I love to eat pasta every day.

¹plain: simple; with nothing added

²calorie: a measure of energy produced by food

Why I Love My Tablet¹

First, it connects me to my school and class. I check my class website for daily assignments and videos. In addition, I put all the due dates² for tests and homework into the tablet's calendar so that I am always ready for class. All my textbooks are also on it. I do not need to carry many heavy textbooks anymore. Finally, I use the tablet to complete all my writing assignments. When I finish them, I just email my work to my teacher. I never go to school without my tablet.

¹tablet: a portable computer controlled by touch

²due date: the day something must be completed

Good Teachers

First, good teachers are patient. They explain things again and again. In addition, they are organized. They plan for every class. Good teachers are also encouraging¹. They help students understand the subject. Finally, good teachers are fair². They do not give too much or too little work, and they grade students on how good their work is. These are some important qualities³ of good teachers.

¹encouraging: giving strength or hope

²fair: just; reasonable

³quality: something typical of someone's character and personality

Parts of a Paragraph: Supporting Sentences

Every paragraph must have sentences that support the topic sentence. These sentences make up the body of the paragraph and are called supporting sentences. They:

- give more information about the topic, such as details, examples, or reasons
- should not include ideas that are unrelated or unconnected to the topic

Read the paragraph below. The two underlined sentences are unrelated to the topic.

Making Chili

Chili is an easy dish to prepare. To make chili, cut up one large onion. Then fry it in a little vegetable oil. Next, add fresh garlic and some chili peppers. When the onions are soft, add one pound of ground meat. Stir until the meat is cooked. Sprinkle one tablespoon of red chili powder on top. There are many types of chili powder. After that, add four cups of diced tomatoes, one cup of water, and one can of red beans. Cover the pot and cook over low heat for about one hour. Fried chicken also takes about an hour to prepare. This simple recipe creates a delicious dinner.

ACTIVITY 6 | Identifying unrelated sentences

Underline the topic sentence and cross out the two unrelated sentences in each paragraph.

My Office

My office has everything I need to do my work. On the left side of the room, there is a large desk. My computer sits on top of the desk, and the printer sits under it. I keep important documents in its drawers. On the right side of the room, there are two beautiful bookcases. They are full of books, magazines, and computer software. My father makes bookcases and other wood furniture. A telephone and a fax machine are on a small table next to my closet. I have trouble remembering my fax number. All my office supplies are in the closet. I enjoy my office very much.

PARAGRAPH 2.10

An Energetic Neighbor

My 96-year-old neighbor, Mrs. Wills, lives alone and takes care of herself. My grandmother lived to be 87. Mrs. Wills goes to the grocery store by herself, and she does all her own cooking. She does not like to eat white rice. Mrs. Wills also cleans her own house. She puts her heavy garbage can by the street for trash collection every week. She exercises by walking on the beach. I hope to have that much energy when I am 96 years old.

A Yupik elder woman harvests grass for baskets in Alaska, USA.

Changing Celsius to Fahrenheit

Changing temperatures from Celsius to Fahrenheit is not difficult. First, multiply the Celsius temperature by 9. Then divide this answer by 5. When you finish, add 32 to your answer. The result is the temperature in Fahrenheit. Most countries report temperatures in Celsius, but the United States reports them in Fahrenheit. For example, if the Celsius temperature is 20, you multiply 20 by 9. Then you divide the answer, 180, by 5. The result is 36. If you get a different number, check your math mistake. Next, add 32, and you have the correct Fahrenheit temperature, 68. Now you can easily change a temperature from Celsius to Fahrenheit.

Grammar: Adjective + Noun

When you write, you can make a sentence much more interesting if you add descriptive words. These descriptive words are called adjectives. They describe nouns (people, places, things, and ideas).

	ADJECTIVE(S)	NOUN
I have a	heavy	bag.
This is my	new	bicycle.
Michael goes to an	excellent	college.
Rachel draws	small ink	pictures.

Sometimes you can combine two short sentences by putting the adjective(s) before the noun.

TWO SHORT SENTENCES	BETTER WRITING
n adj There is a volcano . It is huge .	adj n There is a huge volcano .
n adj Susan is an athlete . She is talented .	adj n Susan is a talented athlete .
adj n adj Sami drives an old car . It is silver .	adj adj n Sami drives an old silver car .
adj n Lisa collects small photographs . These n adj photographs are antique .	adj adj n Lisa collects small antique photographs .

For more information about order of adjectives, see the Writer's Handbook.

WRITER'S NOTE Adjective Form

Adjectives have only one form. There is no plural form.

✓ The university has online classes.

✗ The university has onlines classes.

ACTIVITY 7 | Describing nouns with adjectives

Combine the related sentences into one sentence. Some words are not used. Use correct capitalization and punctuation.

1. Rob owns a car. The car is red.

Rob owns a red car.

2. I do not like this weather. The weather is cold.

3. Paris is a city in France. This city is beautiful.

4. Ali has a job. The job is new.

5. They like to drink coffee. The coffee is very hot.

6. Nina reads stories. They are funny.

7. My mother grows roses. The roses are big. The roses are beautiful.

8. Juan works for a company. The company is large. The company is international.

9. My grandparents live in a town. It is a farming town. The town is small.

10. Sharon rents a house on Smith Street. The house is white. The house is tiny.

Grammar: Linking Verb + Adjective

A linking verb connects the subject to the words after the verb. Be is a linking verb. Other linking verbs are related to the five senses: sight, taste, touch, smell, and hearing. If the main verb of a sentence is a linking verb, the adjective comes after the verb.

SUBJECT	LINKING VERB	ADJECTIVE
The boys	are	young.
I	am	sleepy.
That house	is	big.
Justin	looks	ill.
The grapes	taste	delicious.
The hot water	feels	good.
These flowers	smell	sweet.
Sohee's plan	sounds	interesting.
Tony and Ron	seem	nervous.

ACTIVITY 8 | Identifying adjectives

There are ten adjectives in the paragraph. Find and underline them. Circle any linking verbs.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 2.12

culture: (n) ideas, activities, and behaviors that are special to a people, country, or region dream: (n) a hope for something

My Dream Vacation

I have a dream to visit Alaska. The weather is beautiful there. I love cold weather. When the temperature is low, I have energy! I also want to visit Alaska because I love nature. Alaska looks so pure¹. I dream about its amazing snowy mountains. In addition, there are unique² animals to see. Finally, I want to learn about the native³ people of Alaska. Their culture sounds very interesting to me. I really want to visit this wonderful state soon.

¹pure: clean; not dirty or polluted

²unique: one of a kind

³native: coming from or belonging to a particular place

ACTIVITY 9 | Writing sentences

Look at the photo and read the caption. Write seven to nine sentences about the photo. Use there is/there are, prepositional phrases of place, and/or adjectives.

1. The market is in Indonesia.
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____

Lok Baintan floating market in Indonesia

Sequence Words and Phrases

We use sequence words and phrases to show the order of ideas in a paragraph. Notice the sequence words in Paragraph 2.1, “The Best Place to Relax.”

My back porch is my favorite place to relax. First, it has a lot of comfortable chairs with soft pillows. . . . My back porch is also very quiet. . . . Finally, in the evening, I can sit on my porch and watch the sunset.

Some other sequence words and phrases are next, in addition, then, and last.

ACTIVITY 10 | Ordering sentences

Put the supporting sentences in order from 1 to 8. The topic sentence (TS) is marked for you.

- _____ a. Doctors say that one hour of exercise each day can keep you in good shape.
- _____ b. First, you need to eat healthy food.
- TS _____ c. It is easy to stay healthy if you follow some simple steps.
- _____ d. This allows your body to rest and become stronger.
- _____ e. The best types of food to eat are fruits and vegetables.
- _____ f. Exercise is also good for your mind.
- _____ g. Finally, you need to find time to relax.
- _____ h. You should eat a lot of them every day.
- _____ i. Next, you need to do some exercise.

Grammar: Subject and Object Pronouns

When you write about a topic, using the same noun again and again in your paragraph can make your writing sound repetitive.

Alisa lives in the city. Alisa likes the noise and the crowds, but Alisa does not like the stress.

Alisa has many friends. She talks to these friends every day. She sees these friends every weekend.

To make your writing more interesting, replace some nouns with pronouns.

Subject pronouns come before the verb.

SINGULAR SUBJECT PRONOUN		PLURAL SUBJECT PRONOUN
I	live in Panama.	We	live in Panama.
You	work in a bank.	You	work in a bank.
He/She/It	is from Turkey.	They	are from Turkey.

In the following sentence, the subject pronoun she takes the place of Alisa.

Alisa lives in the city. She likes the noise and crowds, but she does not like the stress.

Object pronouns usually come after the verb.

SINGULAR OBJECT PRONOUN		PLURAL OBJECT PRONOUN
Mona likes	me.	Mona likes	us.
I know	you.	I know	you.
Kevin understands	him/her/it.	Kevin understands	them.

In the following sentence, the object pronoun them takes the place of friends.

Alisa has many friends. She talks to them every day. She sees them every weekend.

An object pronoun can also come after a preposition.

	PREPOSITION	OBJECT PRONOUN
Assad walks	with	me. us. you. him/her/it. them.
They give help	to
Jessica lives	near

Only use a pronoun when the noun it is replacing is clear. In the following sentences, it is not clear which noun they replaces, scientists or experiments.

The scientists do experiments in the lab. They are very interesting.

In this case, it is better to use the noun.

The scientists do experiments in the lab. These experiments are interesting.

Andy's sister and her friends will move our large couch and chairs and put the couch and chairs in front of the television. Finally, Andy's sister and her friends will move our beds. Our beds may take a long time to move because our beds are so big. However, Andy and I are not worried because Andy's sister and her friends will help Andy and me quickly finish everything on our long moving list.

Grammar: Possessive Adjectives

When you want to talk about something that belongs to someone or something, you can use a possessive adjective. A possessive adjective answers the question Whose? as in Whose house? Whose books? and Whose television?

A possessive adjective comes before the noun that it describes.

SUBJECT PRONOUN	POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVE	EXAMPLE
I	my	My house is on Mariposa Avenue.
you	your	Do you have your ticket for the airplane?
he	his	Nick lives with his father .
she	her	Her purse is red and black.
it	its	A butterfly moves its wings quickly.
we	our	We write all our papers on a computer.
they	their	The students will bring their CDs .

When ¹³ (they / them) talk about ¹⁴ (they / their) lives, ¹⁵ (I / My) love to listen. In ¹⁶ (I / my) opinion, they are the most interesting stories in the world.

Parts of a Paragraph: The Concluding Sentence

In addition to a topic sentence and body, a good paragraph has a concluding sentence.

The concluding sentence:

- ends the paragraph with a final thought
- often expresses the same idea as the topic sentence using different words
- does not give any new information about the topic

Look at the topic sentences and concluding sentences from a few paragraphs in this unit. Notice how they express the same ideas in different ways. Words that are important to the topic may be repeated.

TOPIC SENTENCE	CONCLUDING SENTENCE
My back porch is my favorite place to relax .	I can relax in many places, but my back porch is the best .
The Shanghai Tower is an amazing building .	The Shanghai Tower is amazing inside and out.

OBJECTIVES

- Write sentences in the simple present
- Write simple and compound sentences
- Use and, but, and so in compound sentences
- Use a, an, the, and \emptyset article
- Write an original paragraph

3 | Writing about the Present

FREEWRITE

Look at the photo and read the caption. What is a sport or hobby that you like to do? Describe it.

ELEMENTS OF GREAT WRITING

Using the Simple Present

The simple present is one way to discuss the present. It is very common in academic writing. We use the simple present to describe:

- regular activities or habits
Dr. Jones begins his days by visiting patients.
Carla drinks two cups of coffee every day.
- facts or things that are generally true
Earth revolves around the Sun.
The people of Iceland are friendly and helpful.
- a process (how to make or do something)
Next, the artist prepares his materials.
Finally, the delicious meal is ready to serve.

ACTIVITY 1 | Analyzing sentences

Identify whether each sentence is describing a habit (H), fact (F), or process (P).

1. _____ Boston, USA, has many colleges and universities.
2. _____ After you finish your paragraph, you should edit it.
3. _____ Water freezes at 0°C.
4. _____ It is possible to build a camera with materials from your home in a few steps.
5. _____ My mother often wears a beautiful pair of gold earrings.
6. _____ One year on Neptune lasts about 165 Earth years.
7. _____ Every weekday, Samantha drives to her English class.
8. _____ Next, add milk and sugar to the coffee.
9. _____ Arthur always eats popcorn when he watches a movie.
10. _____ My laptop computer has a beautiful blue cover.

Grammar: The Simple Present Affirmative

The simple present affirmative has two forms: the base form and the -s form.

SUBJECT	VERB	OTHER INFORMATION
I/You/We/They	like wash carry	to go to the beach. the dishes in the sink. suitcases to the airport.
He/She/It	likes washes carries

For most verbs, add s to make the -s form. However, when the verb ends

- in ss, sh, ch, z, or x, add es (teach → teaches)
- in a consonant + y, change the y to i and add es (cry → cries)
- in a vowel + y, add s (play → plays)

The verbs have, do, and go have irregular -s forms.

SUBJECT	VERB + OTHER INFORMATION
He/She/It	has a new friend. does exercise. goes to school.

Remember that the verb be has three forms in the simple present.

SUBJECT	VERB + OTHER INFORMATION
I	am a student.
You/We/They	are on vacation.
He/She/It	is smart.

In informal writing, you can use contractions. A contraction is a shortened form of two words combined with an apostrophe ('). Do not use contractions in academic writing.

I am = I'm	he is = he's you are = you're	she is = she's we are = we're	it is = it's they are = they're

Remember to use the -s form with a third-person singular subject.

- ✓ He calls his parents every day.
- ✗ He call his parents every day.

ACTIVITY 2 | Using the simple present affirmative

Fill in each blank with the simple present form of the verb in parentheses.

Japan and Germany	import oil and export cars.

Compound Sentences

A compound sentence is two simple sentences that are joined by a comma and a connector (such as and). If both sentences have the same subject, replace the second with a pronoun.

SIMPLE SENTENCE 1	CONNECTOR	SIMPLE SENTENCE 2
Japan and Germany import oil	, and	Saudi Arabia imports vegetables.
Jack likes Italian food	, but	Fatima and Juliana prefer Thai food.
Abbie watches TV at night	, so	she does not finish her homework on time.
For vacation, we camp in the mountains	, or	we relax on the beach.

The connector in a compound sentence is called a coordinating conjunction. It shows the relationship between the two simple sentences.

CONNECTOR	MEANING
and	adds information
but	adds contrasting (different) information
so	gives the result of the event or information in the first sentence

ACTIVITY 10 | Identifying sentence types

Circle the subject(s) and underline the verb(s) in each sentence. Then write S for simple sentence or CD for compound sentence.

1. ^{CD} Japan's flag is red and white, and Canada's flag is also red and white.
2. ^S Japan and Canada have the same two colors in their flags.
3. _____ The weather is bad, but the pilot plans to leave on time.
4. _____ It is extremely hot in Abu Dhabi during the summer.
5. _____ The Martellus Map of Europe, Africa, and Asia is over five hundred years old.
6. _____ The Atacama Desert receives almost no rain, so it is the driest desert in the world.
7. _____ Students in many countries take college entrance exams, but they do not like it.
8. _____ January, March, May, July, August, October, and December have 31 days.
9. _____ The Olympic rings represent the flags of every country, so they are blue, yellow, red, black, and green.
10. _____ Baseball and golf are popular sports to watch and play.
11. _____ Some people prefer gold jewelry, but others prefer silver jewelry.
12. _____ Research requires time, patience, and determination.

WRITER'S NOTE Writing Lists of Words

When you write a sentence that contains a list of three or more items:

- put a comma after each item except the last one
- make sure all the words in the list are the same part of speech, such as all verbs or all nouns
- try not to make the list longer than three or four items

Lucas will visit ⁿLondon, ⁿParis, ⁿRome, and ⁿPrague next year.

Andrea has ^{adj}pink, ^{adj}yellow, and ^{adj}white roses in her garden.

ACTIVITY 11 | Identifying commas in a list

Look back at Activity 10. Underline the four sentences that contain a list of three or more items.

When practice finish at 6:00 in the evening, Steven returns home. He eats dinner, do his homework and talks with his family. Steven is in bed early to be ready to work hard again the next day.

Grammar: Using A and An or Ø

A and an are called indefinite articles. We use articles with nouns.

There are two types of nouns in English: count and non-count. Count nouns can be counted. They have a singular form (phone, person) and a plural form (phones, people). Non-count nouns are not countable. They have only one form (money, information).

A singular count noun cannot stand alone. We use an article or another word before it, such as this, that, or a possessive adjective (my, your, his, etc.). Use:

- a or an before a singular count noun when its meaning is general (not specific)

We want to buy a house in the future.

- a before a singular count noun that begins with a consonant sound a break / a dream / a horse / a uniform

- an before a singular count noun that begins with a vowel sound an animal / an engineer / an honor / an uncle

When there is an adjective before a singular count noun, use the beginning sound of the adjective, not the noun, to choose a or an.

✓ Our friends attend an excellent school.

✗ Our friends attend a excellent school.

We do not use a or an before plural count nouns or non-count nouns.

✓ Computers are part of everyone's life. (Ø article)

✗ A computers are part of everyone's life.

For more information on using a or an and a list of common non-count nouns, see the Writer's Handbook.

ACTIVITY 14 | Choosing a, an, or Ø

Write each noun or noun phrase in the correct column.

accidents
computers
daily activity

extra pencil happy memory hour

information money object solution umbrella university

A	An	Ø

ACTIVITY 15 | Editing sentences

Each sentence is missing a or an. Add the correct indefinite article to each one.

1. My father has stressful job
2. You have exam today.
3. Our teacher gives us project every week.
4. There is large cake for my son's birthday.
5. His mother is amazing woman.
6. We have test in this class every week.
7. Their sister is excellent cook.
8. You can buy e-book on that website.

Grammar: Using The

The is called the definite article. Use the:

- before a singular count noun, plural count noun, or non-count noun when its meaning is specific (not general)

I do not have my keys, so I am locked out of the house.

- for the second (and third, fourth, etc.) time you talk about something

I have a sweater and a coat. The sweater is made of wool, but the coat is made of leather.

- when the noun you are referring to is unique—there is only one

The Hubble Space Telescope takes incredible pictures of outer space.

The Taj Mahal is a beautiful monument.

For more information on using the, see the Writer's Handbook.

ACTIVITY 16 | Using a, an, the, and Ø

Choose the correct article to complete the paragraph.

can afford: (phr) to have enough money create: (v) to make something

Shipping containers used as student dormitories in Amsterdam, the Netherlands

An Exciting Way to Recycle

¹(A / The) company in the Netherlands is recycling in ²(a / an) new and exciting way. ³(A / The) company is changing old shipping containers into new buildings. First, it cleans ⁴(Ø / the) containers. Then it adds ⁵(Ø / a) new floors, ⁶(Ø / the) windows, and electricity to each one. After that, the outside of ⁷(Ø / the) new building is painted ⁸(a / the) bright color. Often, ⁹(a / the) company connects containers to create ¹⁰(a / an) apartment building or student dormitory. Some containers even become stores. In the end, it costs much less money to make ¹¹(Ø / a) new building from ¹²(an / Ø) old container, so more people can afford to buy or rent one. Making shipping containers into new buildings adds about one hundred years of life to shipping containers, and is ¹³(an / the) amazing way to recycle.

ACTIVITY 24 | Combining sentences

Combine the ideas into one sentence. You may change the word forms, but do not change or omit any ideas. There may be more than one answer.

1. (HINT: Use a connector.)

Cheetahs have spots.

Leopards have spots.

The spots create patterns.

The patterns are different.

2. (HINT: Use a connector.)

You can see polar bears in Alaska, USA.

You can see grizzly bears in Alaska, USA.

You can see panda bears in south central China.

3. (HINT: Use a connector.)

Miguel wants to be a professional soccer player.

Miguel practices soccer.

Miguel does this every day.

WRITING

ACTIVITY 25 | Writing a paragraph

Think about your favorite activity. Then follow these steps to write a paragraph about it on a separate piece of paper. Put a check (✓) next to each step as you complete it. Use at least one compound sentence and two of the vocabulary words and phrases presented in the unit. Underline the unit vocabulary you use.

1. ____ In your first sentence, write: ____ is my favorite activity. Fill in the blank with the name of the activity you like.
2. ____ In your next sentence, write the first reason you like the activity. Next, write a sentence with an explanation about why you like it.
3. ____ In the next sentence, write the second reason that you like the activity. Next, write a sentence with an explanation for this reason.
4. ____ In the next sentence, write the final reason that you like the activity. Next, write a sentence with an explanation for this reason.
5. ____ In the last sentence, write: These are some of the reasons why I like ____.

Editing

After you finish your writing, check your work for errors. Use the checklist below to help you.

- ☐ Each sentence has a subject and a verb.
- ☐ I used the base form and -s form of verbs correctly.
- ☐ I used at least one compound sentence.
- ☐ I used commas in compound sentences and lists.
- ☐ I included the four main parts of a paragraph and a title.

ACTIVITY 26 | Peer editing

Exchange papers from Activity 25 with a partner. Read your partner's paragraph. Then use Peer Editing Form 2 in the Writer's Handbook to help you comment on your partner's paragraph.

Additional Topics for Writing

Choose one or more of the topics to write about. Follow your teacher's directions.

TOPIC 1: Look at the photo on pages 58–59. Hunting with eagles is a national tradition in Mongolia. What sport or hobby is a national tradition in your country? Describe it.

TOPIC 2: Write about something you want to learn, such as planting a garden. Why do you want to learn it? What are the steps for learning it? Do you think it is a hard thing to learn? Why or why not?

TOPIC 3: Write about an interesting career. Include one specific type of job in this career. Write about the duties of the job and why it is interesting.

TOPIC 4: Write about your favorite app. What is it called? What does it do? How does it work? How is your life different with this app?

TOPIC 5: Write about something that you do not enjoy doing but have to do. Why don't you like doing it? Why do you have to do it? What happens if you don't do this activity?

TEST PREP

You should spend about 25 minutes on this task. Write a paragraph with six to ten sentences.

Some people prefer to travel with a companion. Others prefer to travel alone. Which do you prefer? Use two or three specific reasons and examples to support your answer.

Use the simple present in your paragraph. Include one or two compound sentences by combining two simple sentences with a comma and the connectors and, but, or so. Use articles as necessary.

TIP

It is important for your writing to look like a paragraph. Be sure to indent the first sentence. Write the rest of the sentences from margin to margin. Leave an appropriate amount of space after your periods. These small details make your paragraph easier to read and understand.

A photograph of a museum display case containing several human skulls. A person with long, dark, curly hair is visible on the right side of the frame, looking into the case. The display case has a wooden frame and glass panels. The skulls are arranged on shelves inside the case. The lighting is warm and focused on the display.

4 | Writing about the Past

OBJECTIVES

- Write sentences in the simple past
- Use past time words and phrases
- Use adverbs of manner
- Write complex sentences with time clauses
- Write an original paragraph

National Geographic Explorer Aalaa Al Shamahi, a paleoanthropologist and comedian, holds a copy of a Neanderthal skull at University College London.

FREEWRITE

Look at the photo and read the caption. What do you think of this photo? What are some funny things you did in the past?

ELEMENTS OF GREAT WRITING

Using the Simple Past

The simple past is one way to write about the past. It is common in academic writing. We use the simple past to:

- write about recent or historical events

The L Tower in Toronto, Canada, opened in 2015.

- tell a narrative, or story, that is real or imagined

The team's journey to the championship was a difficult one.

- describe the events in a person's life

As a young man, Mahatma Gandhi worked as a lawyer.

- report on the result of an experiment

The cell divided several times.

ACTIVITY 1 | Analyzing a paragraph

Read the paragraph. Then answer the questions that follow.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 4.1

invention: (n) something created for the first time organization: (n) a group that works for a specific goal prize: (n) a reward for winning something suffering: (n) mental or physical pain

PARAGRAPH 4.1

The Nobel Peace Prize

Alfred Nobel became famous for two very different reasons. Nobel was first well-known for creating dynamite¹. He created this important tool to make life easier for workers, and he made a lot of money from his invention. Unfortunately, people began to misuse² dynamite, and it caused great suffering. At the end of his life, Nobel worried that it would be the only reason people remembered him. As a result, he used most of his money to create an organization to give prizes to people who do the most good for the world. One of these was the Nobel Peace Prize. Nobel created this special prize for people who work the hardest to create peace in the world. Now, Nobel is perhaps even more famous for the Nobel Peace Prize than for dynamite.

¹dynamite: an explosive

²misuse: to use something in the wrong way or for the wrong purpose

1. How is the simple past used in the paragraph?
 - a. to write about a recent event
 - b. to describe the events in a person's life
 - c. to report on the result of an experiment
2. Why is the simple present used in the concluding sentence?
 - a. to describe a habit
 - b. to describe a fact
 - c. to describe a process

Grammar: The Simple Past Affirmative

Simple past affirmative verbs end in ed or d.

SUBJECT	VERB	OTHER INFORMATION
I/You/He/She/It/We/They	visited lived	the university. in a small town.

For most verbs, add ed to make the simple past. However, when a verb ends:

- in e, add d. (live → lived)
- in a consonant + y, change the y to i and add ed (carry → carried)

Many verbs in English have an irregular simple past form. There is no rule that says when a verb is irregular, but you can look it up in a dictionary. Here are some common ones.

BASE	PAST	BASE	PAST	BASE	PAST	BASE	PAST	BASE	PAST
become	became	do	did	go	went	ride	rode	sit	sat
begin	began	eat	ate	have	had	run	ran	speak	spoke buy	bought	feel	felt	leave	left	say	said	take	took catch	caught	find	found	make	made	see	saw	teach	taught
come	came	get	got	pay	paid	send	sent	write	wrote

The verb be is irregular in the simple past. It has two forms.

SUBJECT	VERB	OTHER INFORMATION
I/He/She/It	was	at home.
You/We/They	were	excited.

For more information on the spelling of regular simple past verbs and a longer list of common irregular simple past verbs, see the Writer's Handbook.

Grammar: Past Time Words and Phrases

Past time words and phrases show when something happened in the past.

last night last week the other day this morning (two minutes) ago yesterday

You can put these expressions at the beginning or the end of a sentence. We often use a comma after a time word or phrase at the beginning of a sentence.

I watched the news last night.

Last night, I watched the news.

ACTIVITY 5 | Writing sentences with irregular simple past verbs

Ask your partner the questions. Write each answer as a complete sentence.

1. Where were you last summer?

2. How did you feel yesterday?

3. What was the last funny movie you saw?

4. What did you eat for lunch yesterday?

5. Who did you send your last email to?

Grammar: The Simple Past Negative

The negative simple past of all verbs, except be, is formed in the same way.

SUBJECT	DID + NOT + BASE FORM	OTHER INFORMATION
I/You/He/She/It/We/They	did not arrive	on time.

For the verb be, add the word not to make a negative sentence.

SUBJECT	BE + NOT	OTHER INFORMATION
I/He/She/It	was not	at the store yesterday.
You/We/They	were not

Remember to:

- use did not + the base form of the verb
 - ✓ Ahmed did not finish his homework.
 - ✗ Ahmed did not finished his homework.
 - ✗ Ahmed no finished his homework.
- use was/were not + the base form of the verb
 - ✓ Sandra was not in school yesterday.
 - ✗ Sandra was no in school yesterday.

In informal writing, you can use the following contractions:

did not = didn't was not = wasn't were not = weren't

10. The 2018 FIFA World Cup took place in South Africa.

ACTIVITY 10 | Writing a paragraph

On a separate piece of paper, write a paragraph about your family's past or about a difficult day you had. Include at least one compound sentence. Give your paragraph a title.

Grammar: Adverbs of Manner

Adverbs describe or give more information about verbs, adjectives, and other adverbs. Adverbs of manner usually describe verbs and end in -ly. They answer the question How?

Kerry picked up the baby carefully. (How did Kerry pick up the baby?)

My sister is studying hard. (How is my sister studying?)

Here are some common adverbs of manner.

badly	fast*	nervously	slowly carefully	happily	quickly	suddenly easily	hard*	quietly	well*

*These adverbs do not use the -ly form.

WRITER'S NOTE -ly Adjectives

Some words that end in -ly are adjectives, not adverbs.

deadly	friendly	lonely	lovely

ACTIVITY 11 | Using adverbs

Fill in each blank with an adverb that describes the underlined verb or verb phrase. Use an adverb from the list on page 93 or one of your own.

1. Julia studied _____ for the final exam. She was in the library every afternoon.
2. He got onto the bus _____ because it was raining.
3. Mariah spoke _____ at the conference. She was not used to speaking in front of so many people.
4. David did _____ in this class. He never studied.
5. Nili cried very _____ during the movie. I did not know she was crying until I looked at her.
6. Teresa typed her paper _____. She almost did not finish before class ended.
7. Nate read the directions _____. He did not want to make a mistake.
8. I had a cold, so I did not play _____ in the soccer game last week.

ACTIVITY 12 | Writing sentences with adverbs

Write original sentences using the adverbs given.

1. (easily)

2. (happily)

3. (suddenly)

4. (hard)

5. (quickly)

6. (quietly)

Grammar: Complex Sentences with Time Clauses

When you write, sentence variety will make your writing more interesting. Good writers use both simple and compound sentences.

John played tennis. (simple sentence)

John played tennis, and he was good at it. (compound sentence)

There is another way to add variety to your writing: complex sentences. A complex sentence consists of two clauses: an independent clause and a dependent clause. A clause is a group of words that includes a subject and a verb.

ind clause Joe listened to music dep clause after he watched TV. (complex sentence)

An independent clause can be a sentence by itself. A dependent clause cannot be a sentence by itself. It must be connected to the independent clause. If it is not, it is a fragment.

✓ Before he bought a car, John rode his bicycle to work.

✗ Before he bought a car. John rode his bicycle to work.

In a complex sentence, the dependent clause starts with a connector called a subordinating conjunction. Subordinating conjunctions such as after, when, as soon as, and before show the time order of events in a sentence. Dependent clauses that start with these time word connectors are called time clauses.

COMPLEX SENTENCES WITH TIME CLAUSES
After + first action	¹ After Leila finished school, ² she drove to work. ² Leila drove to work after ¹ she finished school.
When + first action	¹ When my sister got sick, ² the doctor gave her some medicine. ² The doctor gave my sister some medicine when ¹ she got sick.
As soon as + first action	¹ As soon as the group arrived in Portland, ² they toured the city. ² The group toured the city as soon as ¹ they arrived in Portland.
Before + second action	² Before Josh took the driver's license exam, ¹ he practiced driving. ¹ Josh practiced driving before ² he took the driver's license exam.

For more information on connectors in complex sentences, see the Writer's Handbook.

Commas in Complex Sentences

When a complex sentence begins with the dependent clause, put a comma at the end of the clause. Do not use a comma when the dependent clause comes at the end of the sentence.

After she ate dinner, she called her friend.

She called her friend after she ate dinner.

ACTIVITY 13 | Identifying sentence types

Identify each sentence as simple (S), compound (CD), or complex (CX). If the sentence is compound or complex, add a comma when it is needed.

1. _____ Alexi and Juan finished their essays last night.
2. _____ Karl saw a movie this weekend but he thought it was really boring.
3. _____ Before Mahmood left class he spoke to the teacher about his homework.
4. _____ Amy expected to take a test today but she was wrong.
5. _____ The students did not have any questions after the teacher gave the assignment.
6. _____ My friends and I went down to the cafeteria and had lunch.
7. _____ We had enough time to get a coffee before class started.
8. _____ We can study here or we can go to the library.
9. _____ My brother flew to Amsterdam and he met our cousins there.
10. _____ When Karen wanted information for her report she went to the library.
11. _____ We cannot take a break before noon.
12. _____ The wildlife reserve protects elephants and their natural habitat.
13. _____ Sam began to study as soon as he got to the library.
14. _____ Ying asked a friend to edit her paper and she liked her friend's comments.

ACTIVITY 14 | Writing complex sentences

Combine the two simple sentences into a complex sentence using the connector in parentheses. Use pronouns when appropriate and the correct punctuation.

1. (as soon as)

First: I graduated from high school.

Second: I got a summer job.

As soon as I graduated from high school, I got a summer job.

2. (before)

First: Juan took some English classes.

Second: Juan traveled around the world.

3. (when)

First: My sister and I finished our homework.

Second: My sister and I went to a movie.

4. (after)

First: The house caught on fire.

Second: The fire department arrived very quickly.

Second: The young woman crossed the street.

6. (when)

First: The lights in the classroom went out.

Second: The teacher told the students not to worry.

7. (as soon as)

First: Jacob had the freedom to study abroad.

Second: Jacob moved to California to study English.

ACTIVITY 21 | Combining sentences

Combine the ideas into one sentence. You may change the word forms, but do not change or omit any ideas. There may be more than one answer.

1. (HINT: Use a time connector.)

Cassius Clay was 22 years old.

At that time, he changed his name.

His name changed to Muhammad Ali.

2. Valentina Tereshkova traveled to space.

She did this before any other female astronaut.

This happened on June 16, 1963.

3. (HINT: Use a time connector.)

Serena Williams was a young woman.

Serena Williams became famous for her tennis skills.

Her tennis skills were incredible.

WRITING

ACTIVITY 22 | Original writing practice

Think of an important historical event from the last one hundred years. Then follow these steps to write a paragraph about this event. Use the simple past, at least one complex sentence with a time clause, and at least two of the vocabulary words or phrases presented in the unit. Underline the unit vocabulary you use. Put a check (✓) next to each step as you complete it.

1. ____ In your first sentence, write the name of the event.
2. ____ In your next sentence, write where the event happened.
3. ____ In the next three or four sentences, explain what happened and why it was important.
4. ____ In the last sentence, summarize why this event was important.

Editing

After you finish your writing, check your work for errors. Use the checklist below to help you.

- ☐ I used the correct form of all simple past verbs.
- ☐ I used after, when, as soon as, or before to show time order in a complex sentence.
- ☐ I used commas correctly in complex sentences and with time words/phrases.
- ☐ Each sentence/clause has a subject and a verb.
- ☐ I included the four main parts of a paragraph and a title.

ACTIVITY 23 | Peer editing

Exchange papers from Activity 22 with a partner. Read your partner's paragraph. Then use Peer Editing Sheet 2 in the Writer's Handbook to help you comment on your partner's paragraph.

Additional Topics for Writing

Choose one or more of the topics to write about. Follow your teacher's directions.

TOPIC 1: Look at the photo on pages 82–83. A paleoanthropologist studies early humans. Do you think it is important to learn about the past? Why or why not?

TOPIC 2: Write about an event in the news last week. Who was involved? Where did it happen? Was it a good or a bad event? Explain.

TOPIC 3: Write about something funny that happened to you recently. What happened? Why was it funny?

TOPIC 4: Describe a place you visited when you were a child. Where was this place? Why did you go there? Who went with you? What did you do there?

TOPIC 5: Describe a time when you tried a new food. How old were you? Where were you? What did the food look (taste, feel, smell) like?

TEST PREP

You should spend about 25 minutes on this task. Write a paragraph with six to ten sentences.

Do you agree or disagree that progress is always good? Use specific reasons and examples to support your answer.

TIP

Pay careful attention to verb forms in your writing. Sometimes, you may use examples from the past to support your opinion about something in the present. When you do that, you need to switch between the simple past and the simple present.

Remember to use the simple past when you write about people, places, things, and events in the past. Use complex sentences with after, when, as soon as, and before to show time order.

5 Writing about the Future

OBJECTIVES

- Write about the future with be going to and will
- Use time clauses
- Use if clauses
- Use reason clauses
- Write an original paragraph

- Write about the future with be going to and will
- Use time clauses
- Use if clauses
- Use reason clauses
- Write an original paragraph

Arthur Huang is a National Geographic Emerging Explorer. He created the Trashpresso, a machine that turns plastic into building materials for walls and floors. He believes this is the future of recycling.

FREWRITE

Look at the photo and read the caption. Write about your experience with recycling. What types of things do you recycle? Do you own anything that is made from recycled materials?

ELEMENTS OF GREAT WRITING

Using Be Going to and Will

Be going to and will are used to talk about the future. They often have little or no difference in meaning. The future forms are less common in academic writing, but we use them to:

- make predictions (guesses about the future) and discuss expected results

The community is going to/will benefit from the new park.

The chemical is going to/will change the liquid to a bright blue color.

- talk about plans and proposals

The president is going to/will meet with several world leaders on his trip.

Many grocery stores are going to/will sell this new product.

ACTIVITY 1 | Analyzing sentences

Check (✓) the use of be going to and will in each sentence.

	Prediction	Plan
1. Humans will live on Mars one day.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. First, the scientists will research the problem.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. That little boy is going to fall.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. Arni is going to use two groups in his project.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. The material will expand when it is in water.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
6. The bear will be thin and hungry when spring arrives.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
7. If you follow these steps, you will write a great research paper.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
8. The team is going to use the information for their project.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Grammar: Be Going to

For some future meanings, we generally prefer one future form over the other. We use be going to for:

- future plans that are already made
- predictions that are based on a present action

SUBJECT	BE GOING TO	VERB (BASE FORM)
I	am	going to come to the party. travel next week. slip on the ice. get wet from the rain.
He/She/It	is
You/We/They	are

SUBJECT	BE	NOT	GOING TO	VERB (BASE FORM)
I	am	not	going to	come to the party.
He/She/It	is			travel next week.
You/We/They	are			slip on the ice. get wet from the rain.

WRITER'S NOTE Going to vs. Gonna

Speakers of English often pronounce going to as gonna. However, do not use gonna in academic writing. You must write out the words completely.

- ✓ Our research is going to show that more studies are needed.
- ✗ Our research is gonna show that more studies are needed.

ACTIVITY 2 | Editing a paragraph

The paragraph has five errors with be going to. Find and correct them.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 5.1

countryside: (n) land that is not in towns, cities, or industrial areas sight: (n) a place to visit on a trip

ACTIVITY 4 | Making predictions

Work with a partner. Write as many predictions as you can about the image below. Write complete sentences using the correct form of be going to.

Guests have breakfast at Giraffe Manor in Nairobi, Kenya.

Grammar: Will

We generally use will for:

- future plans/decisions made in the moment
- strong predictions
- promises and offers to help

SUBJECT	WILL	VERB (BASE FORM)
I/You/He/She/It/We/They	will	answer the door. have a great time on vacation. help make dinner.

SUBJECT	WILL	NOT	VERB (BASE FORM)
I/You/He/She/It/We/They	will	not	drive to work in this snow. watch that boring movie. be late this time.

In informal writing, you can use these contractions:

I will = I'll	you will = you'll	he will = he'll	she will = she'll it will = it'll	we will = we'll	they will = they'll	will not = won't

ACTIVITY 5 | Using will

Fill in each blank with will or will not and a verb from the box. You will use some verbs more than once.

be	buy	get	have	make	need

advantage: (n) a good part or feature

Make five predictions about what your life will be like in ten years. Use will not in at least one sentence.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Grammar: Future Time Expressions

In Unit 1, you learned some common ways to express time. You can use many of the same expressions with be going to and will. Here are some other expressions you can use to show when something will happen in the future:

TIME WORDS AND PHRASES	PREPOSITIONAL PHRASES OF TIME
next Saturday/week/month/year	in a day/week/month/year
next time	in ten minutes/two hours later	on the weekend/my birthday
tomorrow	by 2030

We often use a comma after time expressions when they are at the beginning of a sentence.

On Saturday, we are going to go to the movies.

We are going to go to the movies on Saturday.

Next year, the airline will use a new kind of jet.

The airline will use a new kind of jet next year.

ACTIVITY 7 | Identifying time expressions

Choose the correct word or phrase to complete the paragraph.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 5.3

hardly: (adv) almost not special: (adj) important; meaningful perform: (v) to present or act in front of an audience

Carmen's Fifteenth Birthday

¹(Later / Next) week, Carmen Viera will be 15 years old, and her family has plans for a special celebration for her. ²(In / On) her birthday, Carmen is going to wear a long white dress. ³(At / In) the morning, she is going to meet her family and friends. ⁴(At / On) noon, they will go to a ballroom¹ at a hotel. They are going to have a party there called a quince. When the party starts, Carmen will perform some formal dances with her friends. ⁵(Later / Next time), everyone is going to dance, eat, and celebrate. Carmen can hardly wait. She knows that she will always remember her special day.

¹ballroom: a large room where important parties are held

Grammar: Complex Sentences about the Future

Remember that a complex sentence consists of an independent clause and a dependent clause. When the dependent clause begins with a time word connector, such as after, when, before, and as soon as, it is called a time clause. In a complex sentence about the future, use be going to or will in the independent clause, and use the simple present in the dependent (time) clause.

INDEPENDENT CLAUSE	TIME CLAUSE
Calvin will take a nap	after he finishes his work.
Maya is going to read a good book	when she gets home.
Those birds will fly south	before the weather becomes too cold.
Zainab is going to make a phone call	as soon as class is over.

Use a comma when the time clause is at the beginning of a sentence.

After he finishes his work, Calvin will take a nap.

Remember to use the simple present in the time clause.

- ✓ Eliza will work on her painting when she has time.
- ✗ Eliza will work on her painting when she will have time.

Migrating Snow Geese in New Mexico, USA

ACTIVITY 8 | Choosing verbs for complex sentences in the future

Choose the correct form for each verb in parentheses.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 5.4

collect: (v) to bring together floating: (adj) resting or moving on top of water or other liquid garbage: (n) trash

get rid of: (phr) to throw away

recycle: (v) to use again, especially waste items

The Ocean Cleanup

Boyan Slat wants to get rid of the plastic garbage in our oceans. He started The Ocean Cleanup, an organization that is working on a safe and reliable way to do this. It is creating giant floating nets that will catch plastic near the top of the ocean but not harm any sea life. When the nets ¹(are / will be) ready, the company ²(puts / will put) them into oceans near large areas of floating garbage. After the nets ³(are / will be) in place, the plastic garbage ⁴(flows / will flow) into them. When the nets ⁵(fill up / will fill up), large boats ⁶(collect / will collect) the garbage to recycle it. As soon as the newly recycled materials ⁷(are / will be) ready, they ⁸(go / will go) into a variety of products. The Ocean Cleanup estimates¹ that after it ⁹(uses / will use) its system for five years, the Giant Pacific Garbage Patch² ¹⁰(is / will be) fifty percent smaller. After it ¹¹(cleans / will clean) that garbage patch, it ¹²(starts / will start) to clean up the other four garbage patches in the world. The oceans of the future will be cleaner places because of Boyan Slat and The Ocean Cleanup.

¹estimate: to make a judgment about something

²Giant Pacific Garbage Patch: an area with a lot of trash in the Pacific Ocean between Hawaii and California, USA

Boyan Slat and his giant floating nets

ACTIVITY 9 | Writing complex sentences about the future

Combine the two simple sentences into a complex sentence about the future with the connector in parentheses. Use correct verb forms and punctuation.

1. (when)

First: A gardener adds fertilizer to a plant.

Second: The plant begins to grow.

2. (as soon as)

First: The winter ice melts in the North Sea.

Second: Ships sail from port to port.

3. (before)

First: I see how you drive.

Second: I lend you my car.

4. (after)

First: The liquid heats up.

Second: The chemical reaction begins.

5. (as soon as)

First: The air inside the balloon heats up.

Second: The air expands.

6. (before)

First: The scientists discuss the project requirements.

Second: The scientists begin the work.

7. (when)

First: I leave work.

Second: I call you.

8. (after)

First: You choose your classes.

Second: You need to buy your books.

Grammar: If Clauses

An if* clause shows condition. As with time clauses about the future, we use be going to or will in the main clause and simple present in the dependent (if) clause.

INDEPENDENT CLAUSE	IF CLAUSE
We are going to be late	if we do not leave now.
You will do well on the test	if you study hard.
People will drive their cars less	if gas becomes very expensive.

Remember to use a comma when the if clause is at the beginning of a sentence.

If we do not leave now, we are going to be late.

ACTIVITY 10 | Using if clauses

Fill in each blank with the correct form of the verb in parentheses.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 5.5

benefit: (n) a positive result similar: (adj) almost alike tax: (n) a necessary payment to the government totally: (adv) completely, entirely

Philadelphia's Special Tax

People in Philadelphia, United States, have to pay a special tax now when they buy sweet drinks, such as soda. Officials believe that this will have several benefits. One advantage of the tax will be more government funding¹. The city will use most of the money from the tax to improve its public schools, parks, recreation centers², and libraries. However, if people¹ _____ (buy) soda and other sugary drinks outside of the city, the government² _____ (not make) much money for these public services. Another advantage will be better health for the people of Philadelphia. Research on the subject shows that if people³ _____ (have) to pay more for soda because of the tax, they⁴ _____ (buy) less of it. Surprisingly, the same research shows that if people⁵ _____ (want) to buy other types of sugary drinks, the tax⁶ _____ (not change) their spending. For example, people continue to buy the same amounts of sweet tea and fruit juice in Philadelphia. Although the benefits of Philadelphia's tax on sugary drinks are not totally clear, several other cities in the United States now have a similar tax.

¹government funding: money provided by the government to pay for something ²recreation center: a public building used for meetings, sports, activities, etc.

ACTIVITY 11 | Writing about the future with if

Write five sentences with if clauses that explain what will happen if you wake up late.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Grammar: Reason Clauses

A reason clause answers the question Why? and often begins with the connector because. For reason clauses about the future, use be going to or will in the main clause. Use any appropriate verb form in the reason clause.

INDEPENDENT CLAUSE	REASON CLAUSE
They are going to study English	because they want to learn a second language.
I will move to Canada	because I got a job there.
Hanna will work from home tomorrow	because it is going to snow .

Remember that a reason clause is a dependent clause and cannot be a sentence by itself. If it is used by itself, it is a fragment.

- ✓ We are not going to go to the beach because it is raining.
- ✗ We are not going to go to the beach. Because it is raining.

Remember to use a comma when the reason clause is at the beginning of a sentence.

Because they want to learn a second language, they are going to study English.

ACTIVITY 12 | Identifying sentences and fragments

Write S for complete sentence and F for fragment. Then add the correct capitalization and punctuation to the sentences.

1. S ^B because he studies hard, Dante will do well in this class.
2. F because the weather will be bad on Saturday evening
3. _____ because it will be cold we are going to pack our heavy jackets
4. _____ because everyone had a wonderful time at the party

5. _____ because he is going to forget about his appointment
6. _____ because she is stuck in traffic she is going to arrive late
7. _____ because I live in New York City now I will go to the theater often
8. _____ because some students were not in class last week
9. _____ because the storm is really strong a lot of people will lose power
10. _____ because the managers are out of the office we are not going to have the meeting

ACTIVITY 13 | Writing complex sentences about the future

Complete each sentence with a reason clause.

1. Printed newspapers will not exist _____.
2. No one is going to use voicemail _____.
3. DVD players will disappear _____.
4. Classrooms are going to change _____.
5. Insects are going to be an important food source _____.

Lollipops with insects inside

WRITER'S NOTE Because vs. So

Because introduces a reason, or cause, in a complex sentence.

Mai is going to buy a new phone this week because hers does not work well.

So introduces a result in a compound sentence.

Mai's phone does not work well, so she is going to buy a new one.

ACTIVITY 14 | Combining sentences with so and because

Identify each sentence as cause (C) or result (R). Combine them into a compound sentence using so. Then combine them into a complex sentence using because. Use commas and subject and object pronouns as necessary.

1. a. C I am thirsty.

b. R I am going to drink a huge glass of water.

I am thirsty, so I am going to drink a huge glass of water.

I am going to drink a huge glass of water because I am thirsty.

2. a. _____ We are not going to play tennis.

b. _____ It is raining really hard.

3. a. _____ Mr. Lopez will take Ana to the doctor.

b. _____ Ana is very sick.

4. a. _____ I love the movie.

b. _____ I will recommend the movie to others.

5. a. _____ Jonathan does not feel well.

b. _____ Jonathan is not going to go to the party.

6. a. _____ I am not going to buy the new smartphone.

b. _____ The new smartphone is very expensive.

7. a. _____ Brian will go to bed early.

b. _____ Brian is extremely tired.

8. a. _____ Angela needs to buy some fruits and vegetables.

b. _____ Angela is going to go shopping at the farmers' market.

ACTIVITY 15 | Review: Identifying sentence types

Identify each sentence as simple (S), compound (CD), or complex (CX).

1. _____ I am going to go surfing next weekend.

2. _____ My father is going to retire next year, but my mother is going to keep working.

3. _____ After Gerardo finishes painting his house, it will look beautiful.

4. _____ Irene is going to call you when she gets home from work.

5. _____ Brett and his friends are going to go out for dinner and see a hockey game.

6. _____ Ariel is going to go to college next year, but her brother is going to get a job.

7. _____ The game is over, so we are going to go eat at Harvey's Grill.

8. _____ I will bring a salad and dessert to the party.

9. _____ Leslie and Serena will be roommates next semester, but they do not get along.

10. _____ If we do not finish this project on time, the company will lose the contract.

11. _____ Ana and her friends will not be able to go to the museum this weekend.

12. _____ We are going to visit our family in Mexico City because we have a long weekend.

WRITER'S NOTE Paying Attention to Commas

Ask yourself why you are using a comma in a sentence. If you cannot explain the rule, the comma may not belong in the sentence. Every time you write, take a moment to review all your commas.

For a list of common comma rules, see the Writer's Handbook.

ACTIVITY 16 | Review: Using commas

Combine the two sentences into one. Use the appropriate commas for compound sentences, complex sentences, and lists.

1. At the party, we ate food. We talked with our friends, and we played games.

2. First, we are going to go to the store. Then we are going to make dinner.

3. John wants to go to the movies. Rob and Theo want to go home.

4. We will go to the Caribbean for our vacation. We will go to the beach every day.

5. Elizabeth will not ride roller coasters. Roller coasters are too scary.

The Cliffhanger Rollercoaster in Colorado, USA, is the highest roller coaster in North America.

BUILDING BETTER SENTENCES

ACTIVITY 21 | Editing sentences

Find and correct the errors. The number in parentheses tells how many errors each sentence has.

1. If you are going to be at the beach you need to wear sunscreen. (1)
2. Everyone will bring their umbrellas, because it is going to rain. (1)
3. We are gonna meet them at the afternoon. (2)
4. The students going to go to the museum later. (1)
5. I am very hungry, because I will eat a big dinner tonight. (1)

10. After she makes the food, is going to take it to the table. (1)
11. Alison will go to the bookstore, so she needs books for her class. (2)
12. We will go shopping in Saturday. Because we need clothes for our vacation. (3)

ACTIVITY 22 | Writing about a photo

Write sentences about the photo. Use the connector in parentheses and be going to or will.

A crocodile swims close to photographer Jennifer Hayes.

1. (after)

2. (when)

3. (if)

4. (because)

ACTIVITY 23 | Combining sentences

Combine the ideas into one sentence. You may change the word forms, but do not change or omit any ideas. There may be more than one answer.

1. (HINT: Use an if clause.)

We will go on a whale watch.

We will do this next weekend.

There must be good weather to do this.

2. (HINT: Use a reason clause.)

The runners will wear shirts.

The shirts are the same.

The reason is that they are a team.

3. (HINT: Use a time clause.)

First, Kevin will collect a lot of plastic bottles.

Second, Kevin will recycle the plastic bottles.

WRITING

ACTIVITY 24 | Writing a paragraph

Answer the questions. Then write a paragraph on a separate piece of paper. Try to use at least one time clause and one reason clause. Use at least two vocabulary words or phrases presented in the unit and underline them in your paragraph.

1. What is one important goal you have for the future? _____

2. When will you achieve this goal? _____

3. What three steps will you take to achieve the goal? Provide reasons for why these steps will help you.

- a. Step 1: _____

Reason: _____

- b. Step 2: _____

Reason: _____

- c. Step 3: _____

Reason: _____

Editing

After you finish your writing, check your work. Use the checklist below to help you.

- ☐ I responded to all of the questions.
- ☐ I used will and be going to correctly.
- ☐ I used at least one time clause.
- ☐ I used reason clauses in my supporting sentences.
- ☐ I used commas correctly.
- ☐ I included the four main parts of a paragraph and a title.

ACTIVITY 25 | Peer editing

Exchange papers from Activity 24 with a partner. Read your partner's paragraph. Then use Peer Editing Form 2 in the Writer's Handbook to help you comment on your partner's paragraph.

Additional Topics for Writing

Choose one or more of the topics to write about. Follow your teacher's directions.

TOPIC 1: Review your Freewrite response for this unit. Think of all the ways that people recycle. Which types of recycling will have the biggest impact on the planet? Why?

TOPIC 2: Choose a current topic in the news. Read about it. Then write about what you think will happen and why.

TOPIC 3: Think about a special project or event that is going to happen in your neighborhood, city, or country. What is going to happen? When will it happen? Why is it going to happen? When will this project be complete?

TOPIC 4: Imagine that you are preparing to be away from home for a year. In addition to clothing and personal care items, what else will you take? Why?

TOPIC 5: Write about something that you plan to do in the next two weeks. Include the people who are going to be with you, what you are going to do, and why you are going to do this.

TEST PREP

You should spend about 25 minutes on this task. Write a paragraph with six to ten sentences.

What changes do you think will happen in this century? Give two specific examples and explain your choices.

Remember to use be going to and will to write about the future. Use time clauses, if clauses, and reason clauses to write complex sentences about the future. Pay attention to verb forms and commas in these complex sentences.

TIP

Avoid using words such as always, never, all, and none. You cannot give enough proof for these words. Instead, use words such as probably, often, most, many, almost never, and almost none.

6 Sentence Variety

Students and parents outside of the Bonn International School in Germany, which has students from 78 different nations

OBJECTIVES

- Recognize sentence variety
- Write sentences with adjective clauses
- Use the modals should, must, might, and can
- Write an original paragraph

FREWRITE

Look at the photo and read the caption. Write about some advantages of studying with people from different countries.

ELEMENTS OF GREAT WRITING

The Importance of Sentence Variety

Sentence variety is important in writing. Using compound and complex sentences in addition to simple sentences will make your paragraph more interesting.

Compare the following paragraphs. Both contain similar information about tennis terms. However, the paragraph in Example 2 reads better because there are a variety of sentence types.

Tennis Terms

Tennis has many special terms. They are used to discuss the game. Some people do not know the meaning of these special terms. They are not familiar with tennis. One special word is love. Love means “nothing” or “zero” in tennis. All tennis matches begin with a score of love-love. Deuce is a special word. It means the score is even. It means each player scored three points. This means the score is tied at 40. One other special term is volley. A volley means hitting the ball before it touches the ground. It comes from the French word volée. Volée means flight. Love, deuce, and volley are special terms. All tennis players and fans know these special terms.

Simple Sentences: 16 Compound Sentences: 0 Complex Sentences: 1

Tennis Terms

Tennis has many special terms that are used to discuss the game. Some people who are not familiar with tennis do not know the meaning of these special terms. One special word is love, and it means “nothing” or “zero” in tennis. All tennis matches begin with a score of love-love. Deuce is a special word that means the score is even. It means each player scored three points, so the score is tied at 40. One other special term is volley. A volley means hitting the ball before it touches the ground. It comes from the French word volée, and it means flight. Love, deuce, and volley are special terms that all tennis players and fans know.

Simple Sentences: 2 Compound Sentences: 3 Complex Sentences: 5

ACTIVITY 1 | Identifying sentence types

Look back at the paragraph in Example 2. Underline the simple sentences. Double underline the compound sentences. Notice the remaining complex sentences.

Grammar: Adjective Clauses

Adjective clauses are another way to add sentence variety to your writing. You can combine two simple sentences into a complex sentence with an adjective clause.

An adjective clause:

- has a subject and a verb
- describes a noun (just like an adjective does)
- often begins with who or that
- usually comes directly after the noun it describes

Notice how the two simple sentences are combined into a complex sentence with an adjective clause. The adjective clause is in bold. The noun it describes is underlined.

TWO SIMPLE SENTENCES	SENTENCE WITH AN ADJECTIVE CLAUSE
Tennis has many special terms. They are used to discuss the game.	Tennis has many special terms that are used to discuss the game.
Some people do not know the meaning of these special terms. They are not familiar with tennis.	Some people who are not familiar with tennis do not know the meaning of these special terms.
Deuce is a special word. It means the score is even.	Deuce is a special word that means the score is even.
Love, deuce, and volley are special terms. All tennis players and fans know these terms.	Love, deuce, and volley are special terms that all tennis players and fans know.

Who vs. That

When an adjective clause describes a person, use who or that.

When an adjective clause describes an animal, place or thing, use that (or which).

A tennis match in Monaco

ACTIVITY 2 | Identifying adjective clauses

The paragraph has five adjective clauses. Find and underline them. Then circle the noun or pronoun that is described by each adjective clause.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 6.1

consider: (v) to think, believe generation: (n) a group of people of approximately the same age grow up: (phr v) to mature, become an adult modern: (adj) related to today's life row: (n) a line of things, people, etc.

A Family Photo

This is a photo that shows the different generations and cultures in Ali Tecimen's family. Ali is the man in the blue jacket. He was born in Berlin, Germany. He grew up there, but his family is from Turkey. The two people in the front row are his grandmother and grandfather. They are the ones who brought the family to Berlin in the 1970s. They went there for work. Ali's parents are behind his grandmother. The young girl who is with them is Ali's daughter. The other woman in the photo is Ali's wife. The boy who is between them is their son. Even though Ali was born in Berlin and grew up there, he considers Turkey his home. This is a photo of Ali Tecimen's family, but it is also a picture that shows what many modern families look like.

Grammar: Subject Adjective Clauses

In subject adjective clauses, who, that or which is the subject of the verb.

TWO SIMPLE SENTENCES	SENTENCE WITH AN ADJECTIVE CLAUSE
S V Joe met a man. The man is very famous.	S V Joe met a man who is famous.
S V The subject is science. This subject was the hardest.	S V The subject that was the hardest was science.

ACTIVITY 3 | Using subject adjective clauses

Combine the two sentences into one. Change the second sentence into an adjective clause with who or that as the subject. The adjective clause should describe the noun in bold.

1. A coach is a person. This person trains athletes.

A coach is a person who trains athletes.

2. Elon Musk is a businessman. He wants to make space travel easier and more common.

3. Romansch is a language. It comes from Latin.

4. Bolivia is a South American country. It does not have a coastline.

5. Nasi lemak is a Malaysian dish. It uses white rice and coconut milk.

6. Dante Alighieri was an Italian poet. He wrote The Divine Comedy.

7. A meerkat is an animal. It is a native of Africa.

8. The Titanic was a ship. It sank in the North Atlantic Ocean in 1912.

Grammar: Object Adjective Clauses

In object adjective clauses, who, that, or which is the object of the verb. In formal writing, whom is used instead of who or that.

TWO SIMPLE SENTENCES	SENTENCE WITH AN ADJECTIVE CLAUSE
They are meeting the teacher. Everyone ^V likes ^O the teacher.	They are meeting the teacher ^O who/whom/that everyone ^Vlikes.
The girl is a new student. I ^V met ^O her in the hallway.	The girl ^O who/whom/that I ^Vmet in the hallway is a new student.

ACTIVITY 4 | Using object adjective clauses

Combine the two sentences into one. Change the second sentence into an adjective clause with who, whom, or that as the object. The adjective clause should describe the noun in bold.

1. The Guatemalan dish is called chilaquiles. I like this dish the best.

The Guatemalan dish that I like the best is called chilaquiles.

2. The movie was Black Panther. We saw this movie at the theater last night.

3. The dream was strange. I had this dream last night.

4. The number was incorrect. Paul gave me this number.

5. The story was extremely interesting. Samir told this story.

6. The homework assignment was difficult. The grammar teacher gave us the homework assignment.

7. The scientist works in our lab. Many people admire this scientist.

8. The food got cold on our way home. We bought the food for dinner.

9. The famous actress was very friendly. I saw this actress at the restaurant.

10. The play is very popular in London. We are going to see this play tonight.

ACTIVITY 5 | Identifying adjective clauses

Underline the three sentences that have an adjective clause.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 6.2

complete: (v) to finish something encourage: (v) to give strength or hope to someone exist: (v) to be present physically or emotionally pay attention: (phr) to observe and listen closely the wild: (n) an area away from people, towns, and cities

The National Geographic Photo Ark

There are many animals that are in danger of disappearing. Joel Sartore hopes to help save these endangered animals with the National Geographic Photo Ark. He plans to photograph the approximately¹ 12,000 animal species² that are in human care. These animals are in places such as zoos. He photographs animals in zoos because some species no longer exist in the wild. His pictures of these animals have black or white backgrounds that make people pay attention to each animal. The small, less popular animals look as important as the bigger, more well-known ones. It will take Sartore years to complete the Photo Ark, but he hopes his work will encourage people to care about the animals on our planet.

¹approximately: close to a particular number or time

²species: a group of living things

JOEL SARTORE

A threatened koala with her babies

JOEL SARTORE

An endangered Florida panther

ACTIVITY 6 | Analyzing adjective clauses

Copy the three sentences that you underlined in Activity 5. Then write the simple sentences that were combined to make each complex sentence.

1. _____

a. _____
b. _____
2. _____

a. _____
b. _____
3. _____

a. _____
b. _____

ACTIVITY 7 | Combining sentences

A. Combine the two sentences into one by using an adjective clause.

1. This is the weather. I like this weather the most.

2. People write centre and theatre. These people use British English.

B. Sentence 1 belongs in Paragraph 6.3, and Sentence 2 belongs in Paragraph 6.4. Read the paragraphs and check (✓) the best location for each sentence.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraphs 6.3 to 6.4

bright: (adj) giving out a lot of light definitely: (adv) without doubt; clearly difference: (n) something not the same extra: (adj) additional lazy: (adj) lacking energy or activity mood: (n) an emotional state or feeling

How the Weather Affects Me

Some people do not believe the weather can change their mood, but it can really change mine. ☐ Rainy weather makes me feel lazy. It makes me want to stay inside and do nothing. I want to watch a movie or sleep. When the sun is bright, I feel energetic. ☐ This kind of weather makes me want to go outside. I want to play tennis or go to the beach. When the temperature is cool and the sun is shining, I feel like working. I want to finish my projects. As you can see, my mood definitely changes with the weather. ☐

PARAGRAPH 6.4

Spelling Differences

There are a few small but important spelling differences between British and American English. ☐ First, there is a difference in the use of -re and -er endings. ☐ However, these words are written as center and theater in American English. ☐ Second, British English has an extra letter to some words. For instance, colour and travelling in British English are color and traveling in American English. Finally, some words that end in -ise or -ize in British English can only be spelled -ize in American English. In British English, you can write organise or organize, but in American English you can only write organize. Although they are very similar, British and American English have some very different spelling rules.

Artist James Cochran (Jimmy C) works on his mural of William Shakespeare near the Globe theatre in London.

ACTIVITY 8 | Writing sentences with adjective clauses

Write a sentence with an adjective clause that describes each noun. Use the information in parentheses or your own ideas.

1. magazine (fashion articles) I am reading a magazine that has many fashion articles.
2. phone (good pictures) _____
3. teacher (a lot of homework) _____
4. animal (endangered) _____
5. invention (very important) _____
6. building _____
7. location _____
8. friend _____
9. university _____
10. gift _____

Grammar: Using Modals to Add Meaning

We use a modal before the base form of a verb to add meaning to that verb. Modals can be affirmative or negative. To make them negative, add not.

MODAL	PURPOSE	EXAMPLES
should (not)	to give advice	It is going to rain. You should take an umbrella.
must (not)	to show necessity	You must have a visa to visit that country.
might (not)	to show possibility	The weather is bad. We might not go to the beach.
can (cannot)	to show ability	Roberto can speak three languages.

We only use one modal before a verb.

✓ We might go to a new restaurant for dinner.

✗ We might can go to a new restaurant for dinner.

Remember to use the base form of the verb after the modal.

✓ We might play football tomorrow.

✗ We might to play football tomorrow.

ACTIVITY 9 | Choosing modals

Choose the modal that best completes each sentence. Sometimes both answers are possible.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 6.5

advice: (n) an opinion about what to do

daily: (adv) each day

skill: (n) an ability to do something well suggestion: (n) a recommendation

How to Improve Your English Quickly

Here is some good advice on how to improve your English quickly. First, you ¹(must / can) speak English as much as possible. This practice ²(can / must) help improve your fluency¹. Second, you ³(should / might) also make friends with people who speak English well. This way, you ⁴(can / must) use your English more often, and your new friends ⁵(can / must) help you by correcting your mistakes. Third, you ⁶(should / might) read a lot in English. This will improve your vocabulary. Finally, you ⁷(might / should) write in a journal daily. This ⁸(must / can) help your writing skills improve quickly. These suggestions ⁹(should / must) help your English get better faster.

¹fluency: the ability to easily speak and write a language

ACTIVITY 10 | Using modals

You are preparing dinner for your friends. Answer the following questions with a modal.

1. What should you do before your friends arrive?

2. What must you do before dinner?

3. What can your friends do to help with the dinner?

4. What might you cook if there are twenty guests?

5. What should you do if one of the guests is late?

ACTIVITY 11 | Writing a paragraph

On a separate piece of paper, write a paragraph about things that someone should bring if they visit your country for a week. Explain why these things are necessary. Use modals.

ACTIVITY 12 | Identifying sentence types

Write S for simple sentence, CD for compound sentence, or CX for complex sentence. Then decide where each sentence belongs in Paragraph 6.6 and write its letter on the correct line.

- a. _____ Okapis are actually in the same family as giraffes.
- b. _____ Zebras and donkeys are part of the horse family, but they are different species.
- c. _____ Zebras look like horses that have black and white stripes.

PARAGRAPH 6.6

Zebras, Donkeys, Horses, and Okapis

Zebras, donkeys, horses, and okapis have a lot of similarities. First, zebras and donkeys both look like horses. ¹ _____ They are closer in size to donkeys though. Donkeys look like small horses with furry brown hair and long ears. ² _____ Second, okapis look like a mix of a zebra and a donkey. They have legs that are striped like a zebra and a body that is dark brown like some donkeys. However, they are not part of the horse family. ³ _____ Although okapis, zebras, donkeys, and horses look alike, they are different.

A pair of okapis in a zoo

Tourists on a viewing platform at Iguazu Falls

ACTIVITY 13 | Reviewing sequence words

Put the sentences in the correct order (1 through 9) to make a well-organized paragraph.

- a. _____ While Victoria Falls, Iguazu Falls, and Niagara Falls all look different, they have several things in common.
- b. _____ Additionally, Victoria Falls is on the border between Zambia and Zimbabwe.
- c. _____ One way they compete is by having viewing platforms on each side of all the waterfalls.
- d. _____ It is interesting to know how much these waterfalls have in common.
- e. _____ For example, at least four major waterfalls come together to create Iguazu Falls.
- f. _____ Finally, each waterfall is a major tourist attraction, and the countries compete with each other to get the most tourists.
- g. _____ Next, each large waterfall is made up of smaller waterfalls.
- h. _____ Iguazu Falls belongs to both Brazil and Argentina, and Niagara Falls is shared by Canada and the United States.
- i. _____ First, each waterfall is owned by two countries.

WRITING

ACTIVITY 21 | Writing a paragraph

Write a paragraph on a separate piece of paper on the following topic:

On the weekends, do you prefer to cook and eat at home or eat in a restaurant? Why?

Follow these steps for writing. Put a check (✓) next to each step as you complete it. Additionally, include at least one adjective clause, one compound sentence, two modals, and two vocabulary words or phrases presented in the unit in your paragraph. Underline the vocabulary.

1. ____ In your first sentence, tell which dining choice you prefer.
2. ____ In the supporting sentences, give two or three reasons why you prefer this type of experience.
3. ____ Give details for each of your reasons.
4. ____ In the last sentence, summarize your opinion about the experience that you prefer.

Editing

After you finish your writing, check your work for mistakes. Use the checklist below to help you.

- ☐ I gave my opinion in the first sentence.
- ☐ I gave two or three reasons in my supporting sentences.
- ☐ I gave details for each of my reasons.
- ☐ I summarized my opinion in the last sentence.
- ☐ I used at least one adjective clause.
- ☐ I used at least one compound sentence.
- ☐ I used commas correctly in compound and complex sentences.
- ☐ I used at least two modals.
- ☐ I used at least two vocabulary words or phrases from the unit and underlined them.
- ☐ I included the four main parts of a paragraph and a title.

ACTIVITY 22 | Peer editing

Exchange papers from Activity 21 with a partner. Read your partner's paragraph. Then use Peer Editing Form 2 in the Writer's Handbook to help you comment on your partner's paragraph.

Additional Topics for Writing

Choose one or more of the topics to write about. Follow your teacher's directions.

TOPIC 1: Describe your class. How many students are in it? Where are you all from? How are you similar? How are you different?

TOPIC 2: Write about your dream house or apartment. Describe what this house looks like (its size, style, color, etc.). Write about the location of the house (in the mountains, on the beach, in a big city, etc.).

TOPIC 3: Write about an important discovery. What is it? Why is it important? Why do you find this discovery so interesting?

TOPIC 4: Describe a painting that you like. Who painted it? What is in the painting? Describe the colors. What do you feel when you look at the painting?

TOPIC 5: Describe your favorite kind of shopping. Where do you shop? What do you shop for? What do you like about the experience?

TEST PREP

You should spend about 25 minutes on this task. Write a paragraph with six to ten sentences.

Some universities require students to take classes in many subjects. Other universities require students to specialize in one subject. Which is better? Use specific reasons and examples to support your answer.

TIP

It is important to show sentence variety in your writing. A simple sentence is more meaningful if you use it along with compound and complex sentences. When your writing is varied, it sounds stronger and more academic.

Remember to use adjective clauses to describe nouns to add variety to your sentences. Use the modals should, must, might, and can to express advice, necessity, possibility, and ability.

7 | Reader Response

OBJECTIVES

- Use sequence words to organize ideas
- Express an opinion using an opinion verb + that clause
- Write a response paragraph
- Write an original paragraph

Two men have a conversation near the Brooklyn Bridge in New York City, USA.

FREEWRITE

Look at the photo and read the caption. Write about conversations you have with your friends. What do you talk to them about? Do you ever disagree? Explain.

ELEMENTS OF GREAT WRITING

Listing

Writers often organize their ideas in lists: by number, time, or importance. A topic sentence for a paragraph with listing order often includes a phrase such as many types, several reasons, three steps, etc.

There are several reasons for the recent increase in sales.

All new students must go through four steps before they can register for classes online.

In this kind of paragraph, it is important to signal the order of ideas with sequence words and phrases. Here are some common sequence words and phrases for listing.

First/Second/Third	Last	A/An/One (reason/example)
Next	Finally	Another (reason/example)
Then	The first/next/last (reason/example)	In addition

First, next, then, last, finally, and in addition are adverbs and often come at the beginning of a sentence followed by a comma (except for then).

First, passengers buy a ticket.

Next, they go through the gate.

Then they wait for the train.

With one (reason/example), the next (reason/example), and another (reason/example), do not use a comma.

The next reason to read is to increase your vocabulary.

Barcelona is another example of a city with unusual buildings.

ACTIVITY 1 | Identifying topic sentences for listing paragraphs

Check (✓) the topic sentences for paragraphs with listing order.

1. ____ There are three major oceans on Earth.
2. ____ To make good sushi, chefs follow specific steps.
3. ____ Soccer is the most popular sport in the world.
4. ____ Students take online classes for several reasons.
5. ____ The biggest reason for climate change is human activity.
6. ____ Although reading online is convenient, it is difficult to read deeply.
7. ____ The U.S. government is divided into three branches.
8. ____ The water cycle has four stages.
9. ____ Parents should allow children more freedom.
10. ____ Skydiving seems extremely dangerous, but it is actually quite safe.

ACTIVITY 2 | Choosing sequence words

Fill in each blank with the correct sequence word or phrase. Use correct capitalization.

a second	another	finally	first	in addition
----------	---------	---------	-------	-------------

access: (v) to get into something; enter effect: (n) a result issue: (n) a topic or matter of concern natural: (adj) formed by nature; not man-made produce: (v) to make, create trend: (n) a current style or pattern

PARAGRAPH 7.1

Trends in City Design

Five trends are changing the way we design cities. ¹ _____, we are paying more attention to people and their needs. As a result, residents are much closer to shopping and restaurants that they love. It is also easier for them to access public transportation and use bike paths. ² _____ trend is creating healthier buildings. These buildings have more natural light and fewer chemicals. Bringing more nature into cities is ³ _____ trend. We can see this in cities that have green spaces and tree-planting programs. ⁴ _____, we are thinking about the effects of climate change¹. Bad storms, flooding, and rising sea levels are just a few issues we need to consider when designing cities. ⁵ _____, there is a trend toward sustainability. More and more buildings are producing their own energy. As we change, our cities change, too.

¹climate change: changes in Earth's weather patterns

A green space on top of Namba Parks shopping complex in Osaka, Japan

Mayon Volcano on Luzon Island, in the Philippines

ACTIVITY 3 | Organizing a paragraph

Put the sentences in paragraph order (1–8). Use the sequence words to help you.

- a. _____ The Philippines faces a number of dangers related to weather.
- b. _____ Finally, the Philippines is located on the Pacific Ring of Fire.
- c. _____ These warm temperatures cause major storms called typhoons to develop.
- d. _____ The Ring of Fire is an area that has a lot of earthquakes and volcanoes.
- e. _____ Second, the heavy rain from storms can cause mudslides.
- f. _____ These reasons explain why the Philippines experiences extreme weather.
- g. _____ First, the Philippines is by the equator, so water temperatures are very warm.
- h. _____ Mudslides are becoming a big problem because so many of the forests on the islands were cut down.

Responding to Ideas

Students in academic classes often need to respond to or give their opinion about something they read, watch, or discuss. A response paragraph is usually about a topic that people have strong opinions about. There are typically three types of responses: agree, disagree, and a mix of both.

A response paragraph should have:

- a topic sentence that states your opinion
- supporting sentences that give reasons and examples to support your opinion
- a concluding sentence that summarizes your opinion or offers a suggestion

WRITER'S NOTE Avoiding Plagiarism

Writers often use facts to support their opinions. If a fact is well-known and written about a lot, you can use it in your own writing without citing or referring to the original author. However, if a fact is not well-known or written about a lot, then you need to cite the original author in your paragraph to avoid plagiarism. Plagiarism is a serious offense.

ACTIVITY 4 | Analyzing a response

Read Paragraph 7.2. Then read the response in Paragraph 7.3 and answer the questions that follow.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraphs 7.2 to 7.3

argue: (v) to fight with words continue: (v) to carry on for a period of time development: (n) growth or progress focus: (v) to center one's attention on join: (v) to become a member of a group necessary: (adj) required, needed opportunity: (n) a chance, possibility provide: (v) to supply reduce: (v) to make something smaller, decrease

PARAGRAPH 7.2

Reducing Time for Physical Education

Many U.S. elementary and high schools are reducing the time students have for physical education during the school day. They are doing this to give students more time to focus on academic work and to invest¹ in more academic subjects. People who agree with this action say students need to spend more time preparing for national tests. In addition, they argue that not all students like to take physical education classes. They say that students who like exercise can join an afterschool sports program. However, people who disagree with this action say that not all students can access activities outside of school. They also argue that exercise is necessary for young people's brains as well as their bodies. They mention that brain development is connected to exercise and can help students do better in their academic classes. Despite the debate², students continue to lose their physical education classes.

¹invest: to put effort or money into something

²debate: an argument; discussion

A gym class in Colorado, USA

More Attention to Education

I believe that schools should focus on education, not exercise, for three reasons. One reason is that they need to give students more opportunities to get academic information. Providing time for gym class takes away these opportunities. In addition, students need more time to prepare for national tests, such as college entrance exams. They should practice test-taking skills, not sports. Finally, students need to be able to compete academically in college. They will be at a disadvantage if the other students in their classes studied more than they did in elementary and high school. For these reasons, I believe a school's job is to educate minds, not exercise bodies.

1. What is the writer's opinion? _____
2. What three reasons does the writer include?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
3. Is the concluding sentence a summary or a suggestion? _____

Grammar: Opinion Verbs + That Clauses

To express an opinion, you can use an opinion verb + that clause. A that* clause (also called a noun clause) is a dependent clause that contains a subject, verb, and possibly other information. It answers the question What?

OPINION VERB	THAT CLAUSE: S + V (+ OTHER INFORMATION)
I believe	that ^S students ^V should have school on Saturdays.
I feel	that ^S having pets ^V teaches children about responsibility.
I think	that ^S people ^V should be able to vote at 16.
I agree	that ^S helping others ^V is important.
I disagree	that ^S video games ^V make players violent.

Note that we can use the modal should to make a suggestion.

We should start a tree-planting program in our city.

ACTIVITY 5 | Analyzing a response paragraph

Read another response to Paragraph 7.2. Underline all the that clauses. Then answer the questions that follow.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 7.4

chance: (n) an opportunity habit: (n) a repeated behavior; routine unfair: (adj) not fair or just

PARAGRAPH 7.4

Keep Physical Education

There are several reasons why I do not think that schools should reduce the time for physical education. First, I think that it is unfair to make students sit in class all day. They need a chance to take a break and move around. Second, exercise brings oxygen to our brains. This can help students focus better on their lessons and learn more. Last, I believe that physical education classes teach students healthy habits. This is important because students will miss fewer classes if they are healthy. I truly feel that reducing the time for physical education in schools is not a good idea.

A physical education class in Bahrain

1. What is the writer's opinion? _____
2. What three reasons does the writer include?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
3. Is the concluding sentence a summary or a suggestion? _____

ACTIVITY 6 | Using that clauses

The paragraph is missing the three that clauses below. Decide where each belongs and write it on the line. Then answer the questions that follow.

that exercise has a place in schools that schools should focus on academics that schools should find different ways to get students to exercise

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 7.5

compromise: (n) an agreement reached where each side gets some but not all of what it wants lack: (n) not enough of something

Academics and Exercise

I have mixed feelings about the lack of physical education in schools. On the one hand, I agree ¹ _____.

If students are more educated, they will be more competitive in college and at work. On the other hand, I believe ² _____.

_____. If students are in poor physical health, it is hard for them to learn. I think ³ _____.

_____. They should find a compromise.

1. What is the writer's opinion? _____

2. What two reasons does the writer include?

a. _____

b. _____

3. Is the concluding sentence a summary or a suggestion? _____

ACTIVITY 7 | Writing sentences

A. Write a sentence with your opinion about each topic. Use an opinion verb + that clause.

1. animals in zoos

2. children watching TV

3. social media

4. going on a diet

5. taking a year off before going to college

6. telling a lie to be polite

7. requiring shoppers to use their own bags

8. driverless cars

B. Choose two of your opinions. Write them on the lines below and list three reasons for each one. Then share your ideas with a partner.

Opinion 1: _____

Reason a: _____

Reason b: _____

Reason c: _____

Opinion 2: _____

Reason a: _____

Reason b: _____

Reason c: _____

WRITING

ACTIVITY 15 | Writing a paragraph

Read Paragraph 7.6. Then follow the steps below to write a response paragraph on a separate piece of paper. Use at least two vocabulary words or phrases presented in the unit and underline them in your paragraph.

A man sets a clock in Minsk, Belarus.

PARAGRAPH 7.6

Changing the Clocks

In many countries, people change the time on their clocks twice a year in a practice called daylight saving time. People who support daylight saving time say that more light in the evening means we use lights and electricity less. However, because we use a lot of our power for heat and air conditioning, this change in daylight hours does not help us save much energy. In the beginning, supporters argued that the time change helped farmers because they could work longer into the evening during the summer. But this change in schedule can be very hard on our bodies as it makes people more tired and even causes heart attacks to increase. One argument for daylight saving time continues to be strong—people spend more money on evening activities, so businesses do well. In addition, some types of crime decrease because of more light in the evening. Although this practice is becoming less popular, it still continues in many places.

1. ____ State your opinion in your topic sentence. Use an opinion verb + that clause.
2. ____ Give several reasons or examples to support your opinion.
3. ____ Use sequence words and phrases to organize the ideas in your supporting sentences.
4. ____ In your concluding sentence, summarize your opinion or offer a suggestion.
5. ____ Give your paragraph a title.

Editing

After you finish your writing, check your work for mistakes. Use the checklist below to help you.

- ☐ I wrote a topic sentence that states my opinion and is indented.
- ☐ I wrote a sufficient number of supporting sentences related to the topic.
- ☐ I used sequence words and phrases to organize my ideas.
- ☐ I wrote a concluding sentence that summarizes my opinion or offers a suggestion.
- ☐ I gave my paragraph a title.

ACTIVITY 16 | Peer editing

Exchange papers from Activity 15 with a partner. Read your partner's paragraph. Then use Peer Editing Form 2 in the Writer's Handbook to help you comment on your partner's paragraph.

Additional Topics for Writing

Choose one or more of the topics to write about. Follow your teacher's directions.

TOPIC 1: Do you think an online class is as good as a traditional class? Why or why not?

TOPIC 2: Do you think that reality TV programs are beneficial? Why or why not?

TOPIC 3: Do you think that babies and young children should be allowed to use smart phones or tablets? Why or why not?

TOPIC 4: Some parents schedule a lot of activities for their children outside of school. Do you think this is a good idea? Why or why not?

TOPIC 5: Do you think that art classes are important in education? Why or why not?

TEST PREP

You should spend about 25 minutes on this task. Write a paragraph with six to ten sentences.

Some people think that playing games is a waste of time. Other people think that games teach valuable life lessons. Which opinion do you agree with? Use specific reasons and details to support your answer.

TIP

It is generally easier either to agree or disagree only in your response, rather than a mix of both. If you have ideas for both sides, choose the side that is easier for you to write about. If you do not have a strong opinion, choose the side you can write about best—you receive points for your writing skill, not your true personal beliefs. Once you pick a side, only write ideas that support that side.

Remember to use sequence words and phrases to help organize your ideas. Use an opinion verb + that clause to express your opinion.

8 | Putting It Together

OBJECTIVES

- Review paragraph basics
- Write an original paragraph
- Edit your paragraph for grammar and sentence variety

Bosnian inventor Elvis Cero works on part of his electric folding car.

FREEWRITE

Look at the photo and read the caption. What is something that you put together recently? Write about the important steps of that process.

ELEMENTS OF GREAT WRITING

Reviewing Paragraph Basics

We went out to ²(a / the / Ø) reef with many other tourists on ³(a / an / the) special boat. When we got to ⁴(a / the / Ø) reef, the scuba diving instructor helped us put on our equipment. Then we dove into ⁵(a / the / Ø) clear blue water. Everything was so beautiful! There were ⁶(a / the / Ø) colorful fish and many different kinds of coral¹. I swam everywhere. Suddenly, I saw ⁷(a / an / the) huge grey shark swimming toward me. I looked around for my father, but I was far away from him and ⁸(a / an / the) group of tourists. ⁹(A / An / The) shark got closer and closer. I was so scared that I could not move. Just when I thought that it might bite me, ¹⁰(a / an / the) shark turned and swam ¹¹(a / the / Ø) other way. I quickly found my father. Scuba diving is always an adventure, but my first time was truly unforgettable.

¹coral: a type of brightly colored stone made of tiny sea animals

A woman scuba diving on the Great Barrier Reef

ACTIVITY 7 | Combining sentences

Combine each pair of underlined simple sentences into a compound sentence on the lines below. Use the connecting words and, but, or so and a comma.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 8.3

jealous: (adj) wanting something belonging to another person passenger: (n) a person who rides in a bus, boat, car, taxi, etc.

pedestrian: (n) any person walking on a sidewalk, across the street, or down the road powerful: (adj) strong or effective, having great force

PARAGRAPH 8.3

My First Car

My first car made me a popular teenager. It was a Mustang. My Mustang was bright blue and very powerful. All my friends were jealous when they saw it. ¹ They wanted to drive it. I told them they could not. I said that they could be passengers or pedestrians. ² My friends did not want to walk. They were always passengers. However, the best thing about my car was the way it made me feel. ³ Every weekend, I drove to the movie theater. Every weekend, my friends rode with me. We felt like movie stars because everyone stared¹ at us in my beautiful blue car. I'll never forget how much fun I had with my friends in that cool car.

¹stare: to look at someone or something steadily

A couple drives in the first Mustang ever sold.

Exchange the paragraph you wrote for Activity 5 with a partner. Check and edit your partner's compound sentences. If the paragraph does not have any compound sentences, suggest how to include one or two in the final draft.

ACTIVITY 9 | Identifying complex sentences

Underline all the complex sentences. Then answer the questions that follow.

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 8.4

collapse: (v) to fall down because of a lack of support remove: (v) to move or take something away set off: (phr v) to cause something accidentally weight: (n) the measure of how heavy something is

Earthquakes Caused by Humans

¹Several types of human activity can set off earthquakes. ²First, mining¹ can cause earthquakes. ³When we remove dirt from the ground to build mines, the earth can become weak. ⁴If it collapses, an earthquake can happen. ⁵Next, humans can cause earthquakes by building dams². ⁶The weight of so much water in one place can set off an earthquake. ⁷In addition, earthquakes can happen because fracking³ is used to get oil or gas from the ground. ⁸When the water that comes up with the oil or natural gas is put back into the ground, it can cause an earthquake. ⁹If we continue to dig mines, build dams, and use fracking, we will have more and more earthquakes.

¹mining: the business and process of taking minerals out of the earth

²dam: a barrier that keeps a river from flowing

³fracking: the process of adding water to underground rocks in order to get oil or gas

A hydro fracking tower used for gas drilling in Pennsylvania, USA

WORDS TO KNOW Paragraph 8.5

actually: (adv) really; in truth or fact festival: (n) a celebration on a special occasion be in charge (of): (phr) to have responsibility for

How the Months of the Year Got Their Names

The names of all twelve months come from ancient culture and myths¹. There are several months that are named after gods and goddesses. The first month, January, gets its name from the Roman god who was in charge of doors and beginnings—Janus. The name March comes from the Roman god of war, Mars. Some people believe that April is named after the Greek goddess of love, Aphrodite. May is named after Maia, a Greek earth goddess, and June is named after the Roman goddess who was connected to love and marriage—Juno. February gets its name from an old Roman festival. It is the only month that is named after a special occasion. Two months get their names from Roman emperors. July is named after Julius Caesar, and August is named for Emperor Augustus. The last four months of the year are named for where they were in the Roman calendar. Septem, octo, novem, and decem mean seven, eight, nine, and ten in Latin. September, October, November, and December were the seventh, eighth, ninth, and tenth months of the Roman calendar. The names of the months seem so common, but they actually have a long history.

¹myth: a story from ancient societies about history, gods, or heroes

ACTIVITY 12 | Editing for adjective clauses

Exchange the paragraph you wrote for Activity 5 with a partner. Check and edit your partner's adjective clauses. If the paragraph does not have any adjective clauses, suggest how to include one or two in the final draft.

ACTIVITY 13 | Writing a final draft

Review all of the edits and suggestions that your partner(s) gave you for your paragraph from Activity 5. Write your final draft on a separate piece of paper.

PARAGRAPH 8.6

The Island of the Colorblind

There are something unusual about Pingelap Atoll, a small island in the South Pacific. About 10 percent of their population is colorblind. This means they cannot see most or all colors. When a storm terrible hit the island in 1775 it kills most of the islanders. Because the population were so small the gene¹ for colorblindness passed to a lot of people over the next several hundred years. Theirs condition is known as achromatopsia. Some of the people on Pingelap who have achromatopsia are able to see colors like red and blue, so others only see black and white. People's understanding of color is certainly different on Pingelap Atoll.

¹gene: the basic part of a living cell that contains characteristics of one's parents

ACTIVITY 19 | Writing sentences

Write an original sentence using the words listed.

1. (unforgettable/experience) _____
2. (extraordinary/achievement) _____
3. (typical/mistake) _____
4. (modern/machine) _____
5. (festival/celebrate) _____

ACTIVITY 20 | Combining sentences

Combine the ideas into one sentence. You may change the word forms, but do not change or omit any ideas. There may be more than one answer.

1. China has a festival.

It happens every year in April.

The festival is to celebrate a building project.

The project changed the flow of the Min River.

2. There are underground tunnels.

These tunnels are in parts of Argentina and Brazil.

They were made by now-extinct animals.

3. Tasmania is a dangerous place to surf.

There are great white sharks.

There are waves up to 20 feet high.

WRITING

ACTIVITY 21 | Writing a paragraph

Some people think that e-books are better than paper books. Others disagree. What is your opinion? Write a paragraph that answers this question and gives your reasons. Follow these steps for writing. Put a check (✓) next to each step as you complete it. Additionally, use a variety of sentence types and at least two vocabulary words or phrases presented in the unit. Underline the vocabulary.

1. _____ State your opinion in your topic sentence.
2. _____ Use sequence words to introduce each of your reasons.
3. _____ In your concluding sentence, restate your opinion or make a suggestion.

Editing

After you finish your writing, check your work for mistakes. Use the checklist below to help you.

- ☐ My topic sentence states my opinion and is indented.
- ☐ I wrote a sufficient number of supporting sentences related to the topic.
- ☐ I used sequence words to introduce each of my reasons.
- ☐ I wrote a concluding sentence that restates my opinion or makes a suggestion.
- ☐ I used simple, compound, and complex sentences.
- ☐ I gave my paragraph a title.

ACTIVITY 22 | Peer editing

Exchange papers from Activity 21 with a partner. Read your partner's paragraph. Then use Peer Editing Form 2 in the Writer's Handbook to help you comment on your partner's paragraph.

Additional Topics for Writing

Choose one or more of the topics to write about. Follow your teacher's directions.

TOPIC 1: Some people post photos of their children on social media. Other people do not think this is a good idea. What do you think? Why?

TOPIC 2: Do you think that crying is a sign of strength or a sign of weakness? Why?

TOPIC 3: Some schools require students to wear uniforms. Do you think this is a good idea? Why or why not?

TOPIC 4: Locavores are people who believe it is good to only eat food that is grown very close to where they live. They believe this helps the environment and local farmers. How do you feel about this idea?

TOPIC 5: Think of a situation that people are currently debating in your school, community, or city. Why do people disagree about this situation? What is your opinion?

TEST PREP

You should spend about 25 minutes on this task. Write a paragraph with six to ten sentences.

Nothing worth doing is easy. Do you agree or disagree with this statement?

Remember to indent your paragraph, include a topic sentence, develop the main idea with supporting sentences, use a variety of sentence types, and include a concluding sentence.

TIP

Leave time to review your writing. Check that you answered the question, provided enough supporting sentences, organized your ideas clearly, and included the four main parts of a paragraph. Review your grammar, spelling, and punctuation.

ARTICLES

A and An

Use a or an before a singular count noun when its meaning is general. Use a before a word that starts with a consonant sound. Use an before a word that starts with a vowel sound.

Words that begin with the letters h and u can take a or an depending on their opening sound.

- When the h is pronounced, use a.

a horse / a hat / a hot day / a huge dog

- When the h is silent, use an.

an hour / an honor / an honorable man / an herbal tea

- When the u sounds like you, use a (because the first sound in the word is a vowel sound).

a university / a uniform / a useful invention / a unique idea

- When the u sounds like uh, use an.

an umpire / an umbrella / an ugly shirt / an uncomfortable chair

The

Use the:

- before a singular count noun, plural count noun, or non-count noun when its meaning is specific

I need to ask my parents to borrow the car today.

- the second (and third, fourth, etc.) time you write about something

I bought a new coat yesterday. The coat is blue and gray.

- when the noun you are referring to is unique—there is only one

The Sun and the Earth are both in the Milky Way Galaxy.
The Eiffel Tower is a beautiful monument.

- with specific time periods

You must be very quiet for the next hour.

The 1920s was a time of great change in the United States.

- when other words in your sentence make the noun specific

The cat in the picture is very pretty.

- with geographic locations that end in the plural s (such as a group of islands), or that include the words united, union, kingdom, or republic

We are going to the Bahamas for our vacation.

Who is the president of the United States?

- with most buildings, bodies of water (except lakes), mountain chains, and deserts

The White House is in Washington, DC.

The Amazon is a very long river in South America.

Do not use the:

- with the names of cities, states, countries, continents, and lakes (except as mentioned above)

Sylvie is from Venezuela. She lives near Lake Maracaibo.

Lake Baikal is a large freshwater lake in Russia.

- before names or when you talk about something in general

Mikhail Bulgakov is a famous Russian writer.

Jason is going to make a table with wood.

NOUNS AND PRONOUNS

Common Non-count Nouns

Count nouns can be counted. They have a singular form (phone, person) and a plural form (phones, people). Non-count nouns are not countable. They have only one form (money, information).

Here are some common non-count nouns.

COMMON NON-COUNT NOUNS
Food items	butter, sugar, salt, pepper, soup, rice, fish, meat, flour, bread
Liquids	milk, coffee, water, juice, cream

ORDER OF ADJECTIVES

In general, there are seven categories of adjectives. When you use more than one adjective to describe a noun, use the following order.

- | | |
|--------------|--------------------------|
| 1. size | small, large, huge |
| 2. opinion | beautiful, nice, ugly |
| 3. shape | round, square, oval |
| 4. condition | broken, damaged, burned |
| 5. age | old, young, new |
| 6. color | red, white, green |
| 7. origin | French, American, Korean |

✓ He has an enormous brown dog.

✗ He has a brown enormous dog.

You can also use more than one adjective from the same category. Put a comma in between these adjectives, or use and. Use and when the adjectives follow a linking verb.

She is a shy, quiet girl.

She is a shy and quiet girl.

She is shy and quiet.

PREPOSITIONS

At, On, and In

Prepositions indicate time, location, and direction. Prepositions are always the first word in a prepositional phrase, which is a preposition + noun.

Three common prepositions in English are at, on, and in.

Using At

Location: Use at for specific locations.

Other Prepositions

Here are more common prepositions and prepositional phrases of location. In the chart on the next page, the preposition or prepositional phrase shows the location of the ball in relation to the box.

PREPOSITION	EXAMPLE
under 	Pedro keeps his shoes under his bed.
above/over 	Sheila held the umbrella over her head.
in front of 	Mark was standing in front of the restaurant.
in back of/behind 	My shirt fell behind my dresser.
across...from 	There is a supermarket across the street from my house.
next to/beside 	The mailman left the package next to the door.

CONNECTORS

Connectors in Compound Sentences

Connectors in compound sentences are called coordinating conjunctions. They are used to connect two independent clauses. A comma usually appears before a connector that separates two independent clauses in a compound sentence.

COORDINATING CONJUNCTION	PURPOSE	EXAMPLE
and	to add information	Miki works full time, and she is a student.
but	to show contrast	The exam was hard, but everyone passed.
so	to show a result	It was raining, so we decided to stay home last night.
or	to give a choice	We can cook, or we can order pizza.
yet*	to show contrast/concession	There was a hurricane warning, yet many people went to the beach.
nor	to add negative information	Roberto does not like opera, nor does he enjoy hip-hop.
for†	to show reason	He ate a sandwich, for he was hungry.

*Yet is similar to but; however, it usually shows a stronger or unexpected contrast.

Question word order is used in the clause that follows nor.

†The conjunction for is not commonly used except in literary writing.

Many writers remember these connectors in compound sentences (or coordinating conjunctions) with the acronym FANBOYS: F = for, A = and, N = nor, B = but, O = or, Y = yet, and S = so.

Connectors in Complex Sentences

Connectors in complex sentences are called subordinating conjunctions. They are used to connect a dependent clause and an independent clause. Use a comma after a dependent clause when it is at the beginning of a sentence.

SUBORDINATING CONJUNCTION	PURPOSE	EXAMPLE
because since as	to show reason/cause	He ate a sandwich because/since/as he was hungry.
although even though though while	to show contrast	Although/Even though/Though the exam was difficult, everyone passed. Deborah is a dentist while John is a doctor.
after as as soon as before until while when	to show a time relationship	After we ate dinner, we went to a movie. As I was leaving the office, it started to rain. As soon as class ended, Mia ran out the door. We ate dinner before we went to a movie. I will not call you until I finish studying. While the pasta is cooking, I will cut the vegetables. When Jennifer gets home, she is going to eat dinner.
if even if	to show condition	If it rains tomorrow, we will stay home. We are going to go to the park even if it rains tomorrow.

EDITING YOUR WRITING

One way to improve your writing is to ask someone for feedback. Another way is to check your own work. You should read your work to make sure that it:

- responds to the assignment
- has a title
- has a topic sentence
- has sufficient supporting sentences
- has a concluding sentence
- is free from errors

This section will help you become more familiar with how to identify and correct errors in your writing.

Step 1

Below is a student's first draft paragraph for a writing assignment. The prompt for this assignment was "Write about a very happy or a very sad event in your life." As you read the paragraph, use the points above to look for areas that need improvement. For example, does the paragraph have a topic sentence? Do the supporting sentences actually support the topic sentence? Does every sentence have a subject and a verb? Does the writer always use the correct verb form and the correct punctuation?

My Saddest Day

The day I came for the U.S. is my saddest. That night my family gave me a big party. We staid up all night. In the morning, all the people were go to the airport. We cryed and said good-bye. they kissed and huged me. i think that i will not see them ever again. i was sad in united states for six months. now i feel better. that was my saddest day.

Step 2

Read the teacher comments on the first draft of "My Saddest Day." Are these the same things that you noticed?

My Saddest Day

Remember to indent

was

The day I came for the U.S. is my saddest. That night my family gave me a big party.

spelling

verb form

spelling

We staid up all night. In the morning, all the people were go to the airport. We cryed and said good-bye. they kissed and huged me. i think that i will not see them ever again. i was sad in united states for six months. now i feel better. that was my saddest day.

Always put "the" in front of "United States"

You have some good ideas in this paragraph. I really like your topic sentence and concluding sentence. However, you write about three different time frames. You write about the night you left your country, the day you arrived in the United States, and six months after you arrived. Choose one of these times and write about that. I'd really like to learn about your party.

Verbs: You must review the spelling rules for the simple past tense. You had a very hard time with this. Also, be careful with irregular forms. The incorrect forms distract from your ideas. I corrected your first mistake. Fix the others I've circled.

I underlined some capitalization errors. Please fix these, too.

Step 3

Now read the second draft of this paragraph. How is it the same as the first draft? How is it different? Did the writer fix all the errors?

My Saddest Day

The night before I came for the U.S. was my saddest day. That night my family gave me a big party. All my family and friends were come to it. We sang, danced, and ate many food. We stayed up all night. We talked about my new life. When everyone left, we cried and said good-bye. They kissed and hugged me. I think I will not see them ever again. Finally, I went to bed at 4:00 in the morning. However, I could not sleep because I was so sad. I was sad in the United States for six months. Now I feel better, but that was my saddest day.

KEEPING A VOCABULARY JOURNAL

Vocabulary is very important to learning English. The best way for you to really improve your vocabulary is to do more than study from your teacher or this book. You should also keep a vocabulary journal.

A vocabulary journal is a notebook in which you write down all the new words and phrases that you do not know but you think are important. When you find a new word, write it in your notebook. However, writing words in the notebook is not enough. You also need to review the words many times.

The most important thing about learning vocabulary is the number of times you think about the word, listen to it, read it, speak it, or write it. You can practice any way you want.

There are many ways to organize a vocabulary journal, and you should choose a way that you like. It is important to remember this is your journal, and it should be useful for you. Here is one way to keep a vocabulary journal. You write four pieces of information about each new word, but you can write as little or as much as you want.

1. Write the English word first.
2. Write a translation in your first language.
3. Write a simple definition or synonym in English.
4. Write a phrase or sentence with the word. Use a blank (____) instead of writing the word.

With these four kinds of information, you can practice the new vocabulary four ways.

Leave a lot of white space between the words and the information you write. Each page of your notebook should have only five to eight words. As you learn new information about the word, you can write that information in the white space.

Here are two examples:

From a Spanish speaker's vocabulary journal:

dozen	12 things
docena	a _____ eggs

From an Arabic speaker's vocabulary journal:

hot	not cold
حار	The sun is very _____.

TEST TAKING TIPS

Here are some useful tips for taking timed writing tests.

Before Writing

- Before you begin writing, make sure that you understand the assignment. Underline key words in the writing prompt. Look back at the key words as you write to be sure you are answering the question correctly and staying on topic.
- Take five minutes to plan before you start writing. First, list out all the ideas you have about the topic. Then think about which ideas have the best supporting examples or ideas. Use this information to choose your main idea(s). Circle the supporting information you want to include. Cross out other information.
- Write on the assigned topic. Do not write more than is requested. If the assignment asks for a 150-word response, be sure that your writing response comes close to that. Students do not get extra points for writing more than what is required.

While Writing

- Be sure that you have a strong topic sentence. Remember that your topic sentence guides your paragraph. If the topic sentence is not clear, the reader will have difficulty following your supporting ideas.
- It is important for your writing to look like a paragraph. Be sure to indent the first sentence. Write the rest of the sentences from margin to margin. Leave an appropriate amount of space after your periods. These small details make your paragraph easier to read and understand.
- Organize your ideas before you write. Review the list you have created. Place a number next to each idea, from most important to least important. In this way, if you do not have enough time to complete your writing, you will be sure that the most relevant information will be included in your paragraph.
- Once you pick a side (agree or disagree), include only the ideas that support that side. Sometimes you may have ideas for both sides. If this happens, choose the side that is easier for you to write about. If you do not have an opinion, choose the side you can write about best, even if you do not believe in it. You receive points for your writing skill, not your true personal beliefs.

Word Choice

- Avoid using words such as always, never, all, and none. You cannot give enough proof for these words. Instead, use words such as probably, often, most, many, almost never, and almost none.
- Avoid using general or vague vocabulary. Words such as nice, good, and very can often be changed to more specific terms, such as friendly, fabulous, and incredibly. Be more specific in your word choice.
- Avoid slang and informal language in academic writing.

Development

- Avoid information that is too general. When possible, give specific examples. Good writers want to show that they have thought about the subject and provide interesting and specific information in their writing.

After Writing/Proofreading

- Leave time to review your writing. Proofread your paragraph and check for subject-verb agreement, correct use of commas and end punctuation, and for clear ideas that all relate to the topic sentence.
- Check for informal language like contractions or slang. These do not belong in academic writing.
